HEARST NEWS SERVICE MAKING RAPID STRIDES

WM. R. HEARST.

Many Papers Are Taking the Report From the Well-Known Publisher.

The newspaper world talks constantly of the strides of the Hearst News Service. Its special achievements have received particular attention since its wonderful handling of the San Francisco disaster, when the heroism of correspondent John P. Barrett of that service drew eulogies and encomiums from newspapers published in all the leading lands of the world.

William R. Hearst has instilled into this service his own peculiar energy and influence. The men of the service have caught the full spirit of the Hearst employment. They show that willingness and loyalty that stops at no fatigue, and hesitates at no danger when it comes to getting and forwarding the news. But beyond that they keep their brains active in thinking out news features, that in modern journalism have attained equal importance with the news itself.

NEVER SAY DIE.
Hearst always had the never say die spirit when it came to reaching out for news. His liberality in that regard has become proverbial in the nation. His slower and stinger contemporaries began by calling him "Wasteful Willie," because of his free-handed expenditures in news getting, but now they have been forced to admit that his methods were the correct ones and every live newspaper in the land is now following the lines of news-getting he laid down nearly twenty years ago. Meantime, while not stinting his prodigality he has reduced his methods to a system, and it has become certain that the Hearst News Service will secure the best possible reports of every event of importance, no matter how remote its setting, or how difficult the task of securing reliable information.

NATIVE SON.
People in California will very naturally take some pride in the achievements of Hearst, as he is a native son and began his newspaper career in this State. They will find a pleasure in knowing that he has taught the East many lessons in the art of getting and distributing news and that now his news service has become one of the great factors in the country's newspaper life. It has all the old Californian dash and energy, but is held strictly to non-partisan lines, no matter how the political feelings of Hearst himself may tend. Its watchword is "Energy and Reliability" and it is receiving daily compliments from the leading journals of the United States because the watchword is lived up to.

The following article from the Fourth Estate, the leading publication devoted to newspaper work and newspaper men, will be read with exceptional interest by the people of California because it tells of the triumphs of a thorough Californian.

From the Fourth Estate of February 23, 1907.
Hearst service expanding.
Trunk lines reach from Boston to the Pacific.

Congratulations received from newspapers on report of Larchmont wreck, Kingston earthquake, Thaw trial and other great pieces of news—a staff that works with enthusiasm.

The growth of the Hearst News Service within the past few years is one of the interesting developments of the American newspaper world.

It is a demonstration of what can be accomplished by a combination of knowledge of newspaper wants, experience in meeting them, eagerness to give those served just what they want when they want it, and facilities for gathering and distributing all the news of the world.

The service is steadily growing. More than 200 of the best newspapers in the United States and Canada are on its list of patrons.

Curtis J. Mar, general manager of the Hearst News Service, while a young man in the prime of his vigor, is a newspaper man of wide experience, thoroughly acquainted from experience with every phase of newspaper making. His one ambition is to give the patrons of the service the best news report that trained skill, expert knowledge and money can secure, and he has the rare faculty of inspiring his subordinates with his own enthusiasm.

The home office of the service is at 200 William street, New York. It has news distributing agencies at Washington, Columbus, Cincinnati, Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago, Atlanta, New Orleans, Houston, Kansas City, St. Louis, Denver, San Francisco and Seattle.

Its trunk lines run from Boston to San Francisco and from Canada to the Gulf and Mexican line, with branches running into every State in the Union and tapping every news center in the country.

Its corps of correspondents both at home and abroad, writing exclusively for the Hearst News Service, cannot be surpassed. In every European capital it has the exclusive service of a thoroughly equipped newspaper man, fully conversant with his field and on the alert at all times.

Under these conditions it is not strange that the Hearst News Service furnishes its patrons with the world's news quickly, accurately and prepared in regulation newspaper style.

"The policy of the Hearst News Service," said Mr. Mar the other day, "always has been to entrust its newspaper work to expert newspaper men, telegraphic work to the best operators to be secured, and so to treat all its employees as not only to secure their loyal support, but their enthusiastic work at all times, for the benefit of the service."

"The results of this policy are apparent in uniform excellence and great volume of the report handed day and night. It is particularly in evidence when a great piece of news of overshadowing interest to the whole country is to be handled."

"Every man in the service, from the general manager to the copy boys, puts his whole heart into the work, and there is hardly a case on record in recent years when a great piece of news is to the fore that the papers served by the Hearst News Service have not been able to congratulate themselves and their readers on having the fullest, most graphic and earliest stories."

"The awful tragedy off Bock Island, when the Joy liner Larchmont was cut down and sunk and nearly 200 of her passengers and crew perished, is a case in point."

"Many comments were received by the Hearst News Service from its patrons on the manner in which this story was handled."

"If this were an isolated case it would not perhaps be strange, but when it is considered that after the San Francisco disaster, the Kingston earthquake and even in big news of more or less routine nature, like general elections and the Thaw trial, similar commendations are received, it can only signify that the Hearst News Service has the machinery to handle news and

WILL FRAYED AND JAGGED

Was Carried Around a Long Time in Pocket of the Testators.

With no relatives in this country and no person to inherit his little fortune, William Poynts made a will that would leave the $2436.59 he had in the bank in San Francisco to his only nephew in England. William Poynts died on April 13, 1907, and when his will was found, it was learned that he bequeathed all his estate to his nephew, Benjamin Poynts, a resident of England.

The will was written by the testator in his own hand and not in the presence of witnesses, on June 22, 1905. The document is on a small piece of note paper and must have been carried around in the pocket of his all for some time, for the corners and edges have been worn as if often folded and unfolded.

Robert Shields was named executor of the will to act without bonds. The will was filed for probate this morning.

Miner Insults American Banner In Tonopah and Goldfield at Will.

TONOPAH, Nev., April 12.—Immediately after being released from arrest at Goldfield for cursing the American flag and constitution, Samuel Tregoning stood on the street in front of the Miners' Union hall and repeated the offense.

He was re-arrested on complaint of a passing citizen, but at once released by Deputy Sheriff Bart Knight who recently was sworn in by the sheriff.

L. F. Branson, editor of the Tonopah Sun, has asked the Governor to immediately revoke the sheriff's commission.

men in charge who are experts in its use.

"It may be said that the service is absolutely without partisan bias. In politics, as in all other branches of news, its one aim is to send the facts as they exist, without color or prejudice."

TOOK YEARS TO DISAGREE

Thirty-Six Years Married and Now This Couple Seeks to Be Divorced.

After thirty-six years of married life and raising six children who now have attained their majority, Marie M. Brown has commenced action for divorce against John Morris Brown. In her complaint that was filed yesterday afternoon, she alleges extreme cruelty. She claims that for the past two months Brown has not spoken a word to her with the exception of the accusation that she is attempting to poison him.

Mrs. Brown declares that her husband has attempted to wane the affection of their six grown children from her by telling them unpleasant things about their mother. When she was sick she says her husband refused to provide for her and often made the desire that he wished her dead.

Mrs. Brown says there is community property to the value of $4000 and she asks for $40 a month alimony. The couple were married in Norway.

TELLS TALE OF SUFFERING

Franciscan Sisters at Jamaica Appeals to New Orleans Mayor.

NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—An appeal for aid sent to the mayor of New Orleans by the Franciscan Sisters of Jamaica, was made public today it says in part:

"Local aid is out of the question, as everybody has suffered, rich and poor alike. We have never begged before. Our community consists of thirty nuns, twenty-one of whom are Americans. We are obliged to live in the open air, on our lawn, with only two tents for night use."

THIEF HAS TO THANK BAD SHOOTING BY POLICEMAN

Discovered Just as He Had Burglarized a Residence—Made Good His Escape.

Denahy & McTavish's saloon, on the northeast corner of Seventh and West streets, was burglarized this morning at 1:45 o'clock. The burglar secured a cigar box containing cash amounting to $30 and gained entrance by cutting out a panel from a side door leading from the toilet into the saloon.

Baldwin happened along, and seeing the fellow acting in a suspicious manner, started after him. He ran along Seventh street, thence into a yard on Eighth street, thence over a fence, making his escape. Two shots were fired by the officers at the fleeing burglar, but they had no effect in stopping him.

SUIT OUTCOME OF COLLISION

Laborer Asks Damages for Alleged Hurts Sustained in Peculiar Manner.

As the outcome of one of the most peculiar automobile accidents that has yet occurred in Alameda county a damage suit for $10,788, has been brought by John Calavriotes a Greek laborer, against the Oakland Traction Company, Ransome Construction Company, Allen & Cogswell, proprietors of an automobile garage, and Frank Ayers, a chauffeur, for the injuries he is alleged to have sustained in a collision between an electric car and an automobile at Fitchburg, on December 1, 1906.

The plaintiff of the damage suit and several more laborers were riding on Oakland on the front end of a Hayward car. When they approached Allen's roadhouse, the car struck an automobile driven by Ayers. The machine was crossing the track, to approach the roadhouse, when struck by the car. The auto was thrown about sixty feet and the tonneau was completely demolished. The two women occupants of the rear of the carriage,

TRAIN ROBBER BEHIND BARS

Missouri-Pacific Hold-Up Man Said to Be in Jail in Oregon Town.

PITTSBURG, Kansas, April 12.—Joseph Bush, wanted for alleged connection with the robbery of a Missouri-Pacific passenger train, here, on March 4th last, when a negro passenger was shot and killed and several other passengers were relieved of money, was arrested yesterday at Myrtle Point, Oregon, according to advice received by the detectives of this city.

John Merrifield, charged with having aided in the robbery, is under arrest at Elard, Kansas. His arrest was made two weeks ago. Bush was located through information given to the police by Merrifield.

Calavriotes and two other passengers were painfully injured. One of the other laborers sustained a fractured leg and had to be removed to the Providence hospital.

BLOOD-CLEANING TIME

To make a splendid Blood Medicine, which every one should take at this time of year, mix: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.

A well-known local druggist states that these are all harmless ingredients, which any pharmacy can supply at nominal cost.

This simple mixture, though easily prepared, is said to strengthen the kidneys, forcing them to filter and strain from the blood all impure waste matter and acids which cause Rheumatism, Erysipelas, Skin Eruptions, Sores, Boils and Pimples and other effects of Unclean Blood.

Now is the time to rid the system of disease and build up the full blood count of 85 per cent red corpuscles, which means perfect health.

Mix this yourself.

CLUB WOMEN HOLD MEETING

New Century Establishment On Peralta Street Scene of Festivities.

The executive committee of the California Federation of Women's clubs held its first meeting yesterday in the New Century clubhouse at Fifth and Peralta streets.

During the early hours of the session routine business and the reading of the reports of the various officers was conducted. Luncheon was served at the noon hour by the women of the local club.

Among those who participated at the meeting were Mrs. E. G. Buss of Bakersfield, state president, Mrs. Charles Woodbury, vice president at large; Mrs. Robert Potter Hill, general federation secretary; Mrs. J. Benson Wren of Bakersfield, reporting secretary; Mrs. H. L. Eastman, president of Alameda district; Mrs. B. C. Hurst, president of San Francisco district; Mrs. B. I. Walton of Yuba city, Mrs. Kate Buckley, chairman of state clubhouse loan committee; Mrs. N. Abramson, chairman of state federation pin committee; Mrs. B. N. De Leon, chairman of committee on philanthropy; Mrs. I. N. Chapman, Mrs. Henry S. Bridge of Mill Valley, federation auditor; Mrs. Robert Watt, president of New Century club.

During the luncheon Mrs. Robert Watt acted as toastmaster and responses were made by Mrs. E. D. Buss, "The Outlook"; Mrs. Robert Potter Hill, "California State Federation"; Mrs. J. Benson Wren, "Hospitality Committee in Bakersfield"; Mrs. I. N. Chapman, "The Biennial"; Mrs. H. L. Eastman, "Alameda District"; Mrs. Charles Woodbury, "The New Century Club." Mrs. Robert Potter Hill was made an honorary member of the New Century club through the courtesy of Mrs. Watt, the president.

Today the club women will be the guests of the California club in San Francisco, when the final reports of the officers will be heard.

REFUSE MANY HELP OFFERS

Striking Laundry Workers Get Financial Assistance From Local Unions.

Brotherhood of Teamsters Local No. 70 have voted an assessment for ten weeks in advance to assist the striking laundry people. At their last meeting they raised $340 to carry them for the next several weeks. Many of the teamsters wanted to place an assessment of twenty-five cents apiece while some desired to have each member assessed one dollar a week to help the striking union. The matter was finally adjusted to a tax of ten cents for each member a week.

The unions from across the bay have offered help which has been refused by the laundry workers. The San Francisco Union of the Pacific made a nice offer of $2000 to assist during the strike, but the union say they can get all the help they need on this side of the bay. Several other unions in San Francisco made offers which have not been accepted.

WILSON IS TO HOLD HIS JOB

Governor Gillett Has Had No Complaint Filed Against Confessed Bribe-Taker.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Governor Gillette made the statement at the St. Francis last night that he had not asked Railroad Commissioner Andrew M. Wilson to resign his position. Further that he had not taken the matter up at all. Wilson has confessed that his share of the graft collected by the supervisors while he was a member of that board was about $20,000.

"I know it is reported that Wilson has confessed to grafting," said Governor Gillette, "but I only know it through the papers, and I shall take no immediate action in the case, but shall await developments at the graft trials."

"Has any complaint been filed with you against Wilson?" the Governor was asked.

"None," he replied. "I have only heard it talked about, and since I have only heard it talked about, and since I have been in the city Wilson's case has not been mentioned to me."

When asked if he had seen Wilson this week, the Governor said: "No, I have not. I do not even know the man."

MARK MAN FOR ASSASSINATION

AUSTRALIAN MINISTER COMES HERE TO STAY

Rev. T. J. Curtis was, on Tuesday night last, received as a member of the Oakland Presbytery, by a certificate from the Presbytery of Sydney, Australia, where, for many years, he was the pastor of St. Luke's, one of the largest Presbyterian churches in that city, which he resigned at the end of January last, on account of his health requiring complete rest and change.

Mr. Curtis, who is a brother of the late W. F. Curtis, of Oakland, comes with the highest credentials and commendations. At a farewell social tendered to him at St. Luke's church, prior to his departure from Sydney, among those who presented with a purse containing $350, and Mrs. Curtis with

CROWDED HOUSES TO GREET NAT GOODWIN

Nat Goodwin played to another crowded house last evening at the Macdonough, the attraction being "When We Were Twenty-one." Mr. Goodwin was at his best as "Dick." Miss Goodrich was her usual charming self and more than does justice to any role. Tonight and tomorrow night "The Genius" will be presented. Saturday matinee, "When We Were Twenty-one." Will again be presented. Goodwin closes on Saturday evening with "A Glided Fool."

IN FRATERNAL CIRCLES:-

Arrangements are now complete for the military hop to be given by the members of Company N, First Regiment, League of the Cross Cadets, at Central Hall, 412 Twelfth street, on Friday evening, April 19.

The proceeds of the affair are to be used for fitting up the company's armory, and the committee has spared no pains to make this occasion one of the most successful social functions in the history of the company.

Following are the committees in charge: Arrangements—J. P. Dolan (chairman), E. H. Nickolas, C. M. Herkenham, J. P. Flannery, J. P. Callaghan, Louis Pierotti, J. G. Provost and J. F. Kearney. Floor committee—George L. Courtney (chairman), J. N. Callaghan, A. Silva, F. Jacobus, H. Frazier and C. M. Herkenham. Reception committee—Members of the company, J. G. Provost (chairman), Captain H. J. Leonard will act as floor director and will be assisted by Lieutenant J. V. Fitzsimmons and Lieutenant J. L. Flynn. Lieutenant Colonel Benjamin L. McKinley of San Francisco will lead the grand march.

COURT EMERYVILLE.

Court Emeryville, No. 218, F. of A., at a well-attended meeting last Monday, initiated the following new members: A. Brown, J. Butler, W. E. Lamb, John Donahue, Walter Zane and William Mischler. Eight applications are on file, to be initiated next meeting. After the meeting refreshments were served and a very sociable time was enjoyed.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY.

The April meeting of the Illinois Society will take place at Foresters' Hall, entrance on Clay, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, next Tuesday evening, April 23d, commencing at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. C. W. Arper will give an address and there will be music and readings. The gentleman serving refreshments. A cordial invitation is extended to Illinoisans.

OAKLAND LODGE.

Oakland Lodge, No. 103, K. of P., will confer the rank of knight in long form, at its assemblage this evening, Thursday, April 18th. Captain Bernstein's unparalleled team will be largely in evidence, and will be assisted by Liberty Company, No. 11, U. M. W. Members of local lodges are cordially invited to attend. Sojourning brothers especially.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

At a regular convention of Castle Hall, Piedmont Lodge, No. 175, held at Castle Hall last Monday night, one page was advanced to the rank of squire. Several visitors were present and assisted in the beautiful work. The lodge has now two equities on the roll and both will be created knights by the well known team from West Oakland Lodge, No. 144, next Monday night. All members and visiting knights are cordially invited to attend. Piedmont Lodge also has several candidates for the page rank which will be conferred on Monday evening, May 6th.

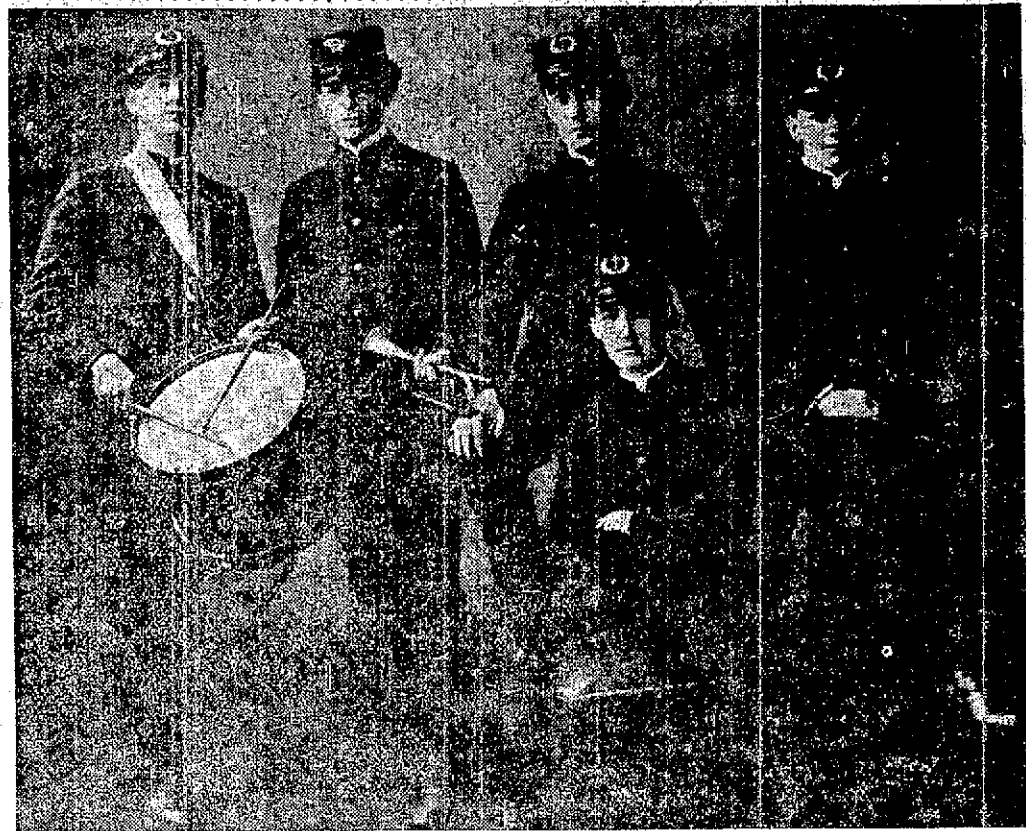

WHIST TOURNAY.

Arrow Whist Club will give a whist tournament Tuesday evening, April 23d at California Hall, Eleventh and Clay streets. Handsome hand-painted prizes given. Score cards, 50c.

NEW CIRCLE.

A new Circle of Druids was instituted Wednesday evening, April 10th by Grand A. D. Sister Ezzamann. This circle promises to be one of the finest circles of the order in California and no doubt will double its membership in a short time, as the element in the circle is the best that can be had in any like organization. The circle has started with a charter membership of sixty-nine and is named Live Oak Circle, No. 57.

The following grand officers assisted the grand A. D. in instituting the circle and installing its officers for the ensuing term: Grand Secretary Sister Thornhill; P. G. A. D. Sister Cervelli; S. P. R. Sister Pimentel; G. S. E. Sister Luzzese; S. Organist, Sister Wolff; G. trustees, Sisters McKee and Beach. After instituting the circle the following officers were installed: P. A. D. Sister R. Cordana, A. D. Sister P. Alden; F. B. Sister L. Pickett; S. B.

MEMBERS OF RECEPTION COMMITTEE MILITARY HOP, COMPANY N: FIRST REGIMENT LEAGUE OF THE CROSS CADETS.

Sister M. McPherson, Conductor Bro. Geo. McPherson, conductress, Sister A. Smith, rec. sec'y, Bro. W. K. MacPherson; financial secretary, Bro. E. R. Alden; treasurer, Sister K. Gamberoni; inside guard, Sister Steinhach; outside guard, Bro. P. Mignola Jr.; organist, W. A. Gharardelli; trustees, Bro. G. Gamberoni, D. Mignola, P. Smith; D. D. G. A. D. C. Fisher was appointed by the G. A. D.

After the business of the meeting was disposed with the members and visitors enjoyed a splendid repast that had been prepared. The banquet table and hall were beautifully decorated with flowers and greens and did justice to the spread on the table afterward several members entertained with music and song, until it was time to skidoo.

PORTER LODGE.
Porter Lodge, No. 272, I. O. O. F., is experiencing a very successful term. The "Porter Hall" stock is selling rapidly and the directors of the company are looking forward to the time when work will be begun on the building to be erected on the lot at Nineteenth and Grove Streets.

The lodge goal is kept busy at all times. At a recent meeting a joint initiation was held, at which time Harbor Lodge, No. 263, conferred the second degree, and Porter Lodge the third degree.

Feb. 22nd, a team composed of all Past Grand conferred the initiatory degree on a class of candidates. April 5th was observed as an "At Home" and was enjoyed by members and their families. Past Grand Jesse A. Jackson was presented with a handsome clock by the lodge. It being the sixteenth anniversary of his admission to the lodge, during which time he has presented one hundred applications for membership to the lodge.

Tonight Porter Lodge will give University Lodge, 144, a fraternal visit. The nineteenth second degree will be conferred at which time Grand Master Bell will pay the Lodge an official visit. May 3rd the initiatory degree will be conferred by an official third degree member team. This is to be in competition with the all past grand team of last month. Judges have been selected and a prize is to be awarded the team that scores the most points. About forty members and their families will go to Los Angeles on the I. O. O. F. special train, which leaves here Sunday, May 12th.

NATIONAL UNION.

Saturday evening, April 13th, Oakland Council, No. 973, held a snoker and gave the members and their friends an entertainment that they will not forget in a long time. The various numbers on the program were thoroughly enjoyed and encored time and again. There were a number of visitors from San Francisco and the other bay cities. General Deputy Jos. A. Wilson, who has charge of the advancing of the order throughout the Coast, gave the best talk of the evening. Senator Pleids also had a heart to heart talk with the boys and told some very good stories, at which he is an adept. Friend Kitchner, who is a very good entertainer, contributed his share. The Oakland Council Quartette, composed of Friends Anderson, Kitchner, Chamberlain and Sherwood, rendered several new selections that were highly appreciated. The regular business meeting was held previous to the entertainment, to take care of new applications for membership in Oakland Council, all of whom were unanimously elected to membership. Ten candidates were initiated and rode the goat well. On April 27th the next meeting will be held at Castle Hall, 12th and Franklin streets. All visiting members are requested to come and enjoy the hospitality of Oakland Council. Special Deputy Chas. V. Wilmarth can be found at 3812 Telegraph Avenue, just beyond Jacon Park or you can call him up by phone, Piedmont 3003. He will be glad to furnish any information that may be required.

YOSEMITE NO. 19.

Yosemite Council No. 19, D. of P. Imp. O. P. M. adopted three past faces on April 8th, and enjoyed a social evening with refreshments. On April 22nd they are to hold at their hall corner of Park street and Santa Clara avenue, Alameda, one of their social whist parties and expect the usual large attendance. May 8th their annual dance will be held at Harmony Hall. The committee in charge is sparing no expense to make it as usual, a social success.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD.

Oakland Lodge No. 123, Fraternal Brotherhood, held its regular meeting last Friday evening at Pythian Castle, Twelfth and Alice streets. President P. E. Eakin presiding. As it was the regular open meeting of the lodge, the business was transacted with dispatch, so the members could entertain their friends. There was a large attendance and refreshments were served during the evening. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

Tomorrow evening will be the regular business meeting of the lodge, but next Friday evening will be another open meeting. All the members of the Uniform Rank are requested to meet on Tuesday, May 7, at the office of the treasurer, room 66, Bacon building.

The lodge's club is holding meetings every Friday evening and prizes will be given each month to those scoring highest.

All members should try and be present at the meeting tomorrow evening, as much business is to be transacted and the applicants are to be initiated. Visiting members are always welcome.

WOODMEN OF WORLD.

Athens Camp No. 457, W. O. W., held its regular meeting and transacted some good business. Two applications were received and acted upon. Athens drill camp under the leadership of Captain Ganser, will initiate Forest Camp's candidates at Masonic Hall, Berkeley, on Monday, April 23d, and all neighbors are invited to attend.

The social committee, which has a program for Wednesday, April 24, a social dance for the benefit of the needy, has made all arrangements and hopes to have a big turnout, as refreshments will be served and the absence of President J. A. Batchelder, supreme chaplain of the order, who has charge of that work.

The entertainment committee had a fine program and a fortune teller from India, Professor Van Wasserling, was engaged for the evening. He was the center of attraction and did a profitable business. Dancing and whist will be enjoyed tomorrow night.

JOINT MEETING.
A joint meeting of the members of all the local lodges of the Woodmen of the World will be held in Woodman Hall, 521 Twelfth street, Friday evening, April 19th, at 8 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to report in detail the work of the second triennial great camp review just closed at Sacramento. It is hoped that every member of the order will be present. This is the opportunity to learn something of one of the greatest fraternal organizations in the world. The officers of each tent are working hard and deserve credit for the efficient manner in which they are carrying on the affairs of each tent.

FOREST CAMP.
Forest Camp No. 102, W. O. W., held its regular meeting Monday evening with Commander W. A. Hadden presiding. Applications were balloted upon and three candidates were on hand for initiation. A. J. Hadden, a past grand, applied to go to Seattle in July as a delegate to attend the W. O. W. Head Camp session, which convenes there.

The big entertainment which was to be given the members by the lemon-squeezing committee on April 22nd has been postponed until Monday evening, April 23d, when the officers and drill team of Athens Camp will be present to initiate several candidates for Forest Camp.

On April 22nd the lodge surprised the neighbors Monday evening and gave an eloquent address. The lemon committee was not to give a big speech on April 23d. They also have engaged J. W. Phillips, J. Schaffer, W. H. Morrison, W. E. Gentry and the grand master of the camp, A. D. Hughes, to give speeches.

MACCABEES.
At the meeting of Argonaut Tent No. 33, Maccabees, held last evening, a large number of Sir Knights listened to the preliminary report of Sir Knight Arnest, the delegate to the State convention. Next Monday evening a joint meeting of all the tents in this city will be held under the auspices of Argonaut Tent No. 33. The purpose of the meeting is to report in detail the work of the second triennial great camp review just closed at Sacramento. It is hoped that every member of the order will be present. This is the opportunity to learn something of one of the greatest fraternal organizations in the world. The officers of each tent are working hard and deserve credit for the efficient manner in which they are carrying on the affairs of each tent.

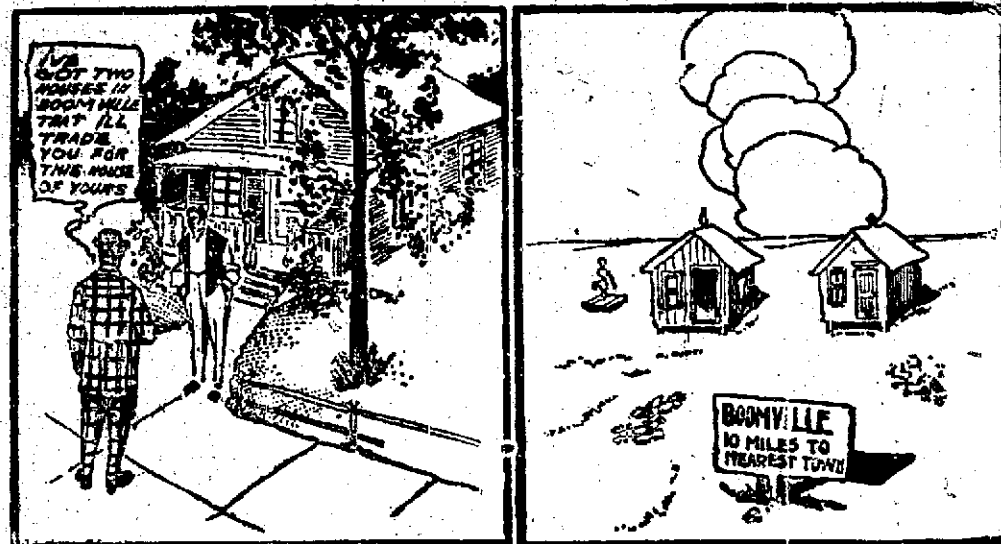

ROYAL COURT.
Oakland Assembly No. 23 held its first public assembly last Thursday evening at Reed hall. This is the first Royal Court organized in Oakland and bids fair to be one of the most successful fraternal orders in the city, as it numbers among its members many who are well known socially and fraternally.

Joseph O. Bakkenheim led the march, which was followed by a band of music being furnished by Hemmings' orchestra. Mr. Sherex was in charge of the band. The parade was led by Tupper and William F. Alderworth. The affair was a great success in every way and gave promise for many more in the future. The public assemblies are to be given the second and fourth Thursdays of each month. On Thursday, May 2d, a business meeting will be held, when a large class will be initiated. Elmhurst Assembly No. 30 held a most enthusiastic meeting last night, at which the arrangements for their second public assembly, to be held next Wednesday evening, were completed. There were several initiated and great interest mani-

ONE YEAR AFTER

The profound gratitude that we felt one year ago today has only been intensified by the daily progress of the entire year.

In common with all Alameda County we feel that we would not be human if we were not better for looking backward.

And with increased prosperity and opportunity has come increased responsibility, both as citizens and merchants.

We have accepted this responsibility and have done our best to fulfill it as becomes good citizens and honorable merchants.

To the citizenry of this county we can confidently recommend our

Why Recent History Is Already Ancient.

A vast deal of local history has been made since April 18, 1906. In reviewing the events of the twelve months which have intervened one is struck by the sense of remoteness the great calamity of last year has assumed. Already it seems among the things of the long ago; its scenes and incidents, full of stir and color and rich in display of the finer qualities of humanity, have assumed a traditional aspect, and taken on the form of legendary history. When the eyes are turned away from the fresh evidences of recent calamity, the great fire in San Francisco seems nearly as far away as the fire in Chicago. Casually recalled, the burning of Chicago and Boston seem only a little less removed than the great conflagration in London or the destruction of Rome in the days of Nero.

This sense of remoteness of a very recent event of epochal significance is induced by the extraordinary mental and physical activity displayed since it occurred. The days of the last year have been exceedingly busy, they have been freighted with stirring incident and momentous change; the ordinary processes of a generation have crystallized in a twelvemonth. We have gone ahead so rapidly that yesterday has already receded in the dim past. We have been so engrossed in multifarious activities that we have had no time to consult the calendar or count the passing days.

The anniversary of the most dramatic event in the history of the Pacific has recalled us, as one started from sound sleep, from the hurry and bustle of the moment to the contemplation of the tremendous disaster of a year and what has transpired since. The first sensation is in the nature of a surprise that so little time has elapsed since San Francisco was burned. The second is wonder that so much has been accomplished and so many changes taken place since then. We have been so absorbed in going ahead that, in our minds, recent events have already become ancient history.

As a fact, the people of Oakland have mentally and materially projected themselves into the future full twenty years since San Francisco was destroyed. Today they are surveying the situation from that advanced standpoint. At the battle of the Pyramids Napoleon said, "Soldiers, forty centuries look down upon you." Forty years look upon the Oakland of today to find that it has leaped forward further in a year than it progressed during all the previous years of its existence. The Oakland of yesterday is but an indistinct memory. The city has been transformed, the spirit of its inhabitants transmuted, and the ambitions of a generation realized almost instantaneously have expanded till nothing seems impossible, no dream beyond the hope of fulfillment.

Bryan says that if it should become advisable for the Democrats to nominate a Republican for President, Senator La Follette should be the man. This is parole evidence that the President was right when he called La Follette a demagogue. It takes a demagogue to qualify as a Democratic candidate for the Presidency under modern conditions.

At the Merchants' Exchange banquet Rev. E. E. Baker spoke feelingly of better Oakland. There was also much talk for a bigger Oakland. A bigger and better Oakland is extremely desirable, but a cleaner Oakland is something all should pray for and work for. The town is sadly in need of an energetic cleaning up crusade. The authorities and the inhabitants generally should inaugurate one at once and prosecute it till the city is in a more presentable condition.

During the past year fully $20,000,000 has been expended in improvements of one kind or another in Alameda county, and the population of the county has more than doubled. These facts are important as an index to property values. They clearly indicate that values have not yet adjusted themselves to the changed condition that has so swiftly come upon us. They are an exhortation to the shrewd investor to buy while bargains are to be had.

San Francisco should abolish the refugee camps at once. There is no longer any excuse for their existence save the fact that the Relief Committee still has a large unexpended balance to be disposed of. The camps are a squalid and disgraceful reminder of the city's desolation. The dregs of society gravitate and cling to them and give them an atmosphere at once degrading and demoralizing. It is mistaken and mischievous beneficence that would continue these cantonments of idleness, mendicancy, filth and vice.

IS THIS A FISH STORY?

Presumably there is a certain satisfaction in the consciousness that everything around one is "of the best," if only in the sense of the costliest, but the ordinary citizen is not likely to have any great desire to follow an example recently set by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish in her mer servants' liveries, says the New York Press. Brass buttons have disappeared from the Fish establishment as too commonplace, and now the butler, the footman and the other liveried servants sport buttons of solid gold, engraved with the monogram "S. F." If they could be persuaded to tell the truth, they probably would admit they groan under the burden of responsibility involved. Every night, when the day's work is over, every man has to take off his buttons, which are put in through eyelets, and hand them to an especially appointed supervisor, who counts them and locks them up in a safe for the night. Every morning there is a grand redistribution and every man thereafter is responsible for his buttons until he has turned them in again safely at the end of the day.

USED HIM AS AN ERASER.

The late Dr. Henry Martyn Field, some years ago, related at a Williams alumni dinner a rather amusing incident of his freshman days at college. Being only 12 years old when he entered, he had not reached the point where the natural friction between the big boy and the small boy ceases, and he was at particular feud with one of his fellows, a stalwart country youth, fresh from the farm. One day young Field went early to the class-room and put upon the big blackboard a very exasperating caricature of his enemy, with his name beneath. When the aggrieved party saw what had been done he said not a word, but catching up his youthful tormentor, he used him as an eraser, and after rubbing out the offensive picture, quietly took his seat.

"Maybe," said the solemn Fulton market fish dealer, "the time will come when some Luther Burbank of fish culturists will produce a boneless shad, and what a fortune awaits that man! Hey?"—New York Sun.

"DEMENTIA" AMERICANA.

High Finance in San Francisco.

From the last issue of the Pacific Banker we quote the following interesting bit of financial news:

"Under the heading 'Prosperous Bank Statements' appear the following: Bank of Greater San Francisco—Capital, $1000; loans, $24,050.28, deposits, $51,184.22, cash and exchange, $22,518.45; total resources, $53,156.22. Standard Bank, San Francisco—Capital, $4,800, loans, $21,826.98, deposits, $17,724.86, cash and exchange, $6,552.51, total resources, $29,237.76. Bay Counties Bank, San Francisco—Capital, $5000; loans, $5000, deposits, $21.24, cash and exchange, $123.90, total resources, $5231.60. The Bay Counties with the princely sum of $5000 for capital does not seem to fare so well as its humbler brother, which has but a fifth of the amount, making a strong argument in favor of little or no capital. These institutions are certainly prosperous to a remarkable degree, and why not? Look at the deposits. Surely the income from $51,000 is ample for paying, not only the necessary running expenses of the concern, but a magnificent dividend to its stockholders as well. It is quite likely, in view of the unusually large capital employed, that the 'bank' found it advisable to own its lot and building. The income from $21.24 might necessitate a trifle more frugality of expenditure in order to assure a fair return for the amount invested, but with judicious management this is easily accomplished."

The Pacific Banker is inclined to be facetious in its references to the business and reliability of these so-called banks, but the subject is rather one for serious consideration. It is apparent that the alleged banks are farcical institutions without the slightest claim to standing in the financial world. They have no business worthy of the name and no capital to speak of. They are among the batch of irregular institutions incorporated as banks during the brief period that the banking laws were repealed. Their only real asset is the legal right to do a banking business without the requisite capital necessary to protect depositors and insure financial soundness. Apparently nobody desires to purchase this questionable right nor have depositors foolish enough to entrust their money to the safekeeping of the promoters been found in any considerable number. The guerrilla excursions into high finance do not appear to have been particularly successful, for which no tears should be shed.

THE BRAVE OLD WAY.

I say risk all for one warm kiss;
I say 'twere better risk the fall,
Like Romeo, to venture all,
And boldly climb to deadly bliss.
I like that savage Sabine way;
What mighty minstrels came of it!
Their songs are ringing to this day,
The bravest ever sung or writ.
Their loves the love of Juliet,
Of Portia Desdemona, yea,
The old true loves are living yet;
And we, we love, we weep, we sigh
In love with loves that will not die.

Then take her lover sword in hand,
Hot-blooded and red-handed, clasp
Her sudden, stormy, tall and grand
And lift her in your iron grasp
And kiss her, kiss her till she cries
From keen, sweet, happy, killing pain.
Aye, kiss her till she seeming dies;
Aye, kiss her till she dies, and then,
Why, kiss her back to life again!

CONSTANCY WINS OUT.

The constant drop of waters wears away the hardest stone;
The constant gnaw of Towser masticates the toughest bone;
The constant wooing lover carries off the blushing maid;
And the constant advertiser is the one that gets the trade.
—American Shoemaking.

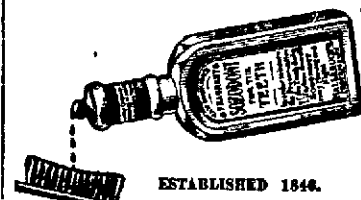

Pointed Paragraphs

Professor William Lyon Phelps of Yale recently told this story at New Haven's Chamber of Commerce banquet. "A hard drinker was told by his doctor that he could be cured if every time he felt that he must have a drink he would immediately take something to eat instead. The man followed the advice and was cured, but the habit of asking for food had become so fixed with him that once he was nearly locked up as a lunatic. He was stopping at a hotel, and, hearing a great commotion in the room next to his, he peeped over the transom to see what the matter was. He saw and rushed madly down to the office and shouted to the clerk: 'The man in 153 has shot himself! Ham and egg sandwich, please!'"

Down in Cochran, Ga., the affairs of civil justice are administered by Judge Edwards, who is also an enthusiastic farmer. One cloudy spring afternoon court was convened to try a peculiarly tortuous and perplexing case. Judge Edwards listened with growing unrest. He was observed at last to seize a slip of paper, scribble a few words, place the document beneath a heavy paper weight and reach for his hat. "Captain," he called, cheerily, "excuse me for interrupting you, suh, you go right on with your argument, which is a darned good one. It's suah goin' to rain this evening, gentlemen, an' I got to get out my potatoes right away. But you go right on, captain! When you an' the major get through you-all'll find my decision under this heah paper weight." The door closed upon an astonished orator.

SHE COULDN'T REFUSE.

"Would you mind if I went into the smoking-car, dear?" asked the bridegroom in a tender voice.
"What! To smoke, sweetheart?" questioned the bride.
"Oh, dear, no," replied the young husband; "I want to experience the agony of being away from you so that the joy of my return will be all the more intensified."—Ladies' Home Journal.

For Whom Is Life Insurance?

It is not for the rich, nor the independent, nor the selfish. It is for the man who recognizes responsibility; for the man who will discriminate—who will take the money he needs for other things and put it in Life Insurance because he sees that the protection of his loved ones after his departure is the greatest need of all. Such a man is worth insuring, and such a man should be sure of his insurance.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

offers such a man something as good as gold; a bond of the United States could be no better. Its policies give the maximum of security at the minimum of cost. In sixty-four years of history it has paid more money to beneficiaries than any other Company in the world. If you have obligations; if your life means something to others, insurance is for you. Investigate the cost of absolute protection in the Mutual Life.

SOCIETY: GOSSIP ABOUT THE SMART SET

MRS. F. M. SMITH complimented guest at the elaborate tea given today by Mrs. Edward M. Walsh.

Mrs. Edward M. Walsh assisted by Miss Marian Walsh entertained this afternoon at one of the elaborate teas of the season, given at the beautiful Linda Vista home. The guest of honor on this occasion was Mrs. F. M. Smith, nee Ellis, recently returned from the East.

Mrs. Walsh and her attractive daughter were assisted in receiving their guests by a score of friends and several hundred greeted the guest of honor during the afternoon.

The home was decorated in artistic combinations of ferns and spring flowers and a number of exquisite gowns marked the event as one of unusual and brilliant success.

HOME CLUB.

The Home Club members held their April luncheon today at the clubhouse in East Oakland. The luncheon hour was followed by the lecture, "Chemistry in the Home," given by Professor W. C. Morgan, of the State University.

GOING AWAY.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Kennedy with their three daughters, Misses May, Marguerite and Jean Kennedy, leave early in May for an extended tour of Europe.

UNIQUE LUNCHEON.

A unique entertainment and luncheon was given by six of the members of the New Era Five Hundred Club, at the residence of Mrs. A. D. Pratt, of 310 Twenty-eighth street, Tuesday afternoon. The occasion was in return for a luncheon given at a previous meeting by the members and as the last of the season's games.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Mrs. Walter Edward Teague entertained, last Friday for little Miss Frances Teague at her second birthday party. Among the invited guests were: Mrs. Frank Guinea and Miss Helen Guinea, Mrs. Harry Mingo Huber, Master Gordon Huber, Mrs. Harry Kastens, Miss Helen Kastens, Mrs. Ellen Dunne, Master Marvin Dunne, Mrs. Britton, Miss Beatrice Britton, Baby Britton, Mrs. Ollie Reed Cushman, Miss Druce and Brother Cushman, Mrs. Jack Jamison, Miss Margaret Schiller, Mrs. Alfred Hughes, Master Alfred Hughes, Mrs. William Price, Miss Dorothy Price, Miss Ruthie Merrill, Mrs. Geo. FOR BRIDE-ELECT.

Miss Jessie Fox will be the motif for several important society affairs of the month, among them the luncheon planned by Mrs. Edson Adams which will take place Wednesday at the Claremont Country Club. On this occasion Miss Fox will share the honor with Miss Klesam, a young New York girl who is visiting here.

BENEFIT TEA.

Mrs. E. C. DeWald assisted by her daughter, Miss Ethel DeWald, entertained recently at a benefit tea given at her pretty home. The house was decorated with spring flowers and whilst was played during the afternoon.

WORLD-STRANGENESS

Strange the world about me lies;
Never yet familiar grown—
Still disturb me with surprise,
Haunts me like a face half known.

In this house with starry dome,
Floored with gemlike plains and seas,
Shall I never feel at home,
Never wholly be at ease?

On from room to room I stray,
Yet my host can ne'er espy,
And I know not to this day
Whether guest or captive I.

So, between the starry dome
And the floor of plains and seas,
I have never felt at home,
Never wholly been at ease.

—William Watson.

TOWN OF GHENT, BELGIUM, MAY HAVE POLICEWOMEN

GHENT.—The town of Ghent, of all have proved successful in the detection of offenders. It is intended that the women constables shall wear the ordinary uniform worn by the males, except that the trousers will be of Turkish fullness and the tunic a little larger than at present.

SHE BECAME CRAZY WHEN SNUBBED

ST. LOUIS.—After spending twenty four years in a local hospital Mrs. Connor, wife of the late State Senator Thomas Connor, has been adjudged hopelessly insane and will be sent to an asylum. Her husband's estate is worth $3,000,000. He got a big start in the early '70s when he went into the Joplin lead and zinc district and bought up much mineral land.

Mrs. Connor's condition is the result of chronic melancholia induced by her disappointment at being refused admittance to society in her home town of Joplin, Mo., when her husband was years ago. She sought in vain to buy her way into the circles of the select in Joplin and her disappointment affected her mind.

SAFETY PIN INSIDE OF HER

BOSTON.—Physicians are congratulating Dr. H. C. Tilton of East Boston on the recovery of Mrs. Tilton after an operation for appendicitis which had the unexpected result of removing a brass safety pin, swallowed in childhood, and lodged in the wall of the appendix.

Mrs. Tilton, who is the sister of the Rev. Charles Crane, pastor of the People's Temple, had suffered from severe pains in the region of the appendix for some time, but would never submit to an operation until the latest attack alarmed her. The operation was performed at a private hospital and the surgeons were greatly surprised when they discovered the safety pin imbedded in the appendix and encased in inflammatory adhesions.

Dr. Tilton intends to have the pin framed and hung on the wall of his office.

Mrs. Tilton is well known in Boston, and goes out socially a great deal. She is an accomplished singer and linguist.

GETS WIFE BY PLAYING BALL

PHILADELPHIA.—A romance which started in a baseball game culminated in the marriage of Elwood J. Carroll, the crack pitcher of the baseball team of the Ninth Police District, and Miss Catherine K. Klinger of Williamstown, N. J. The popular young policeman's friends, although not bidden to the wedding, heard of it at the last minute and their presence was one of the features of the ceremony.

Toward the close of last season, Miss Klinger accepted the invitation of a friend to witness a baseball game between the teams of the Ninth and Fifth Districts. Carroll was the pitcher of the former team and his ability in landing his team on top won for him the admiration of spectators. Miss Klinger was among them, and shortly afterward by request she was introduced to the young athlete.

The friendship ripened into love, and unknown to his fellow policemen, the young bluecoat made preparations for a wedding. A voice over the phone startled the detail at the Brown street station by announcing that the wedding was about to be solemnized in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Covenant. The policeman hurried there and witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll will spend the honeymoon in the Adirondacks.

HUSBAND DID THE HOUSEWORK

ST. LOUIS.—In the suit for divorce of Rosa Lee Hammond against Thomas L. Hammond evidence was elicited that Hammond scrubbed the doors, bathed and dressed the baby and did the washing, ironing and cooking. While Hammond was engaged in his household duties, Mrs. Hammond, the defendant said, entertained the roomers. The case was to have been called yesterday but was laid over. In anticipation quite a crowd of women turned out. Hammond in his cross bill complains that his wife forced him to do a woman's work by her imperious will.

THINGS TAUGHT AT PARIS SCHOOLS

PARIS.—This city has for a long time enjoyed the reputation of leading the fashions of the feminine world, and with a view to maintaining this supremacy the municipal authorities have lately established six training schools for girls, in which they are to be taught everything that goes to the making of a woman's chic toilette. Sewing, embroidery, dress-making and corset-making are some of the subjects taught at these schools, while a special course of instruction in the art of treating ostrich feathers may be taken by those who desire it. These courses extend over three years, only a few hours each day being devoted to them at first; but in the third year they work for seven hours a day. The holders of the diplomas issued by these schools will certainly experience no difficulty in getting employment in the leading dress-making and drapery establishments all over the world.

UNDERSKIRT STOPPED TRAIN

POTTSTOWN, Pa.—Pottsville Express No. 7, one of the fastest trains on the Reading Railway, was held up Monday near Pottstown because Mrs. Mary Faresheski wore a bright red underskirt.

Mrs. Faresheski was picking coal alongside the tracks and placed the coal in her dress, lifting it up so that the bright red underskirt showed when Engineer O'Brien came in sight. He put on the emergency brakes and brought the express to a stop close to the woman.

Later Mrs. Faresheski was arrested by Special Officer O'Donnell, and fined $2.50 for trespass on the company's property.

"Posing is GREAT Sport"

MRS. M. LENDY of Oakland. Specially posed for THE TRIBUNE.

THE COMPARISON OF ARMS; AND POSES.

Next Sunday there is to be presented on a page of THE TRIBUNE a series of pictures of maids and matrons of Alameda county. Each one of those volunteers for the trophy tourney is a recruit in the cause of high art. Some candidate in the comparison of arms bared to the shoulder will win the prize for loveliest contour of that limb, and some one will secure a box of gloves of quality because adjudged surpassing in the competition now in progress. Award for shapeliest arm shown will be $60 worth of silk stockings—one dozen pairs.

By addressing "Phidias, editorial department, OAKLAND TRIBUNE," you can receive a photo order which will entitle you to go and have your likeness taken without expense to you at the studio of Shaw & Shaw, 1115 Broadway, at Thirteenth street. After you have undergone that pleasure a picture of you will be prepared for this journal, and in due time you will learn if good fortune has decreed that you shall be the possessor of either the hose or the gloves.

"I delivered your Bushnell order there," writes a belle of Telegraph avenue, "and an appointment for sitting was made. I posed for a picture with both my arms exposed, as you suggested, and I am sure you will vote the effect a very meritorious one. Of course, I may not triumph at the rivalry, but stranger things have happened. I think posing is great sport."

Credit to Bushnell's art studio was inadvertently omitted from the wording beneath the fine picture of Miss F. S. Painter, of 1231 Chestnut street, Oakland, presented here yesterday.

A GHOST STORY FROM A HAMLET IN WALES

LONDON.—The freaks of a so-called specter are alarming a hamlet some forty miles from Cardiff. The ghost has been paying unwelcome attentions to a well-known inhabitant of the hamlet, who was recently married.

The trouble commenced by his finding himself lying on his bedroom floor beside his bed one morning. Naturally, he put this down to nightmare. The morning after, however, on awaking, he found himself at the other end of the room, and he then became uneasy. His wife on both occasions had slept peacefully.

The third night, however, both kept awake and their vigil was rewarded by a sight of their mysterious visitor, who appeared shortly after the traditional hour of midnight. The victim says the spirit took the form of his own mother, who is still alive and well. He says his mother opposed his marriage and he thinks the nocturnal visits are acts of revenge.

In order to drive forth the intruder the victim persuaded several of his friends to remain in his house one night, but although the ghost appeared as usual to the young man, his wife, and his mother-in-law, the other watchers were unable to discern the strange presence.

The young man's mother-in-law declares that on one occasion she approached the specter, who said quite distinctly, "What do you want?" She also says that she temporarily lost the power of the right side of her body at the meeting.

The victim declares that the spirit has several times accompanied him part of the way to the village, where he is engaged as a collier. His comrades are greatly perturbed by the frequent appearances of the specter and believe firmly in the victim's veracity. The vicar of the parish and several others have visited the house and tried in vain to elucidate the mystery.

AMERICAN WOMEN WEAR QUEEN'S CLOTHES

ROME, Italy.—Whether or not Queen Margherita approves of the sale of her discarded gowns to Royalty loving Americans appears to be a moot question. According to one report, these garments are the perquisites of Her Majesty's head maid, who disposes of them, with the Queen's knowledge, at semi-annual sales, from which she realizes about $5000. Other reports have it that Margherita is much annoyed by this scattering abroad of her cast-off raiment, and has dismissed two maids, who were reaping a considerable revenue from this source. The Queen's first knowledge of what was going on was obtained, it is said, when, on a shopping tour, she saw a woman enter the shop wearing a gown that looked familiar to her. She scrutinized it carefully, and found a tiny spot on the hem of the skirt.

The last vestige of doubt vanished from her mind. The dress was one she had discarded a few days before on account of that very spot. An investigation at the palace followed, with the result that a trusted maid was dismissed. A new maid succeeded to the vacant place, and all went well, so far as the Queen knew, until one day recently, when out driving, her carriage stopped near one in which was seated an American woman wearing a hat which only a few days previously had adorned Margherita's own head. Another investigation followed, and the maid lost her place. The inquiry showed that she was reaping a large yearly profit by selling apparel which her royal mistress had discarded. Her preference as to customers was for Americans, and one condition she imposed on the purchasers was that nothing they bought should be worn in Italy.

SICK WOMAN MAKES TWO BURGLARS FLEE

BOSTON.—With remarkable presence of mind, Mrs. Francis J. Hersey, of Hawthorne road, Wellesley, a prominent society woman of that town, put to rout two burglars who had entered her home at a time when the members of the family were at church.

They went upstairs and into one of the bedrooms, which they started to ransack. They had pulled out the drawers of a bureau and were going through the contents when Mrs. Hersey appeared at the door of the room and commanded them to leave.

Noticing that they hesitated as if wavering between a determination to overpower her and a quick retreat, she screamed for help at the top of her voice, giving the intruders the impression that she was summoning aid from another part of the house.

The ruse succeeded admirably, and, without taking any of the booty they had collected, they hurried down the stairs and out the window through which they had effected an entrance with the aid of a jimmy.

Mrs. Hersey was ill at the time and was in a state of partial collapse when the exciting experience was over.

The Wellesley police say the attempted burglary was one of the most daring which has occurred in the town in years and give Mrs. Hersey great credit for her courage.

Previous to attempting to enter the house, the men called on the telephone from the Wellesley railroad station. Mrs. Hersey did not answer the phone. Neither did she answer when they rung the door bell.

Assured by this that there was no one in the house, they went around to the side of the house and with the aid of a jimmy opened a window and entered.

ON ANKLES SHOWN ON STREETS AND STAGE

CHICAGO.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Detroit, Mich., says: "Unclothed peoples, accustomed to see the human body nude, are less vicious than clothed nations, among whom clothing adds allurements to the mystery of the body," said Mrs. O. A. Jones in her paper, "The Science of Artistic Dress," read before the Century Club. She said: "We women wear tight-fitting bodices on the streets and expose busts in public gatherings like the opera, and yet we blush at the exposure of the ankles and call it immodest. What is there more essentially modest about the exposure of the upper than of the lower limbs?"

"Modesty is the latest evolved of all the virtues, and originally is the effect rather than the cause of clothe. The first chapters of Genesis show that clothing originally was the cause of moral degeneracy."

WHITE FLAG FOR GIRL; BOY, RED AND GOLD

MADRID.—Spain's happy event, is not expected till the later days of April.

The people here are on the qui vive as to the number of salutes that will be fired on the eventful day. Fifteen guns will announce a baby girl, but a sixteenth will signify the arrival of the heir, in whose honor a salute of twenty-one guns in all will be fired. In the case of a girl a white flag will be hoisted over the palace, but in that of a boy the national flag of red and gold will be flown.

GRATIFYING REPORTS MADE BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Oakland Has Grown, as Has Commercial Body---Quarterly Statement of Secretary Stearns.

The quarterly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night was well attended.

Chairman Frank W. Bilger opened the meeting with a short address in which he referred to the work done by the Chamber since its organization a year ago, the growth of the city and the things still left to be done to make this the greatest city on the coast.

His address was followed by the report of Treasurer C. J. Heeseman. Summarized this report shows receipts of $4589.28 and expenditures of $3343.23, leaving a balance on hand of $1246.05.

The quarterly report of Secretary Edwin Stearns was then read. The report was as follows:

To the Officers and Members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce—Gentlemen: The quarter ending this date has been an unusually progressive one for the city of Oakland and the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. More strangers have visited these shores and viewed the exhibit of the products of Alameda county than in the previous six months.

The collector rates of the railroads have brought many thousands of people to California and Oakland is getting her full share judging by the number with whom your secretary has talked.

The committees of the Chamber have been called upon to meet often than usual and during the past quarter very much has been accomplished in securing new-comers not only in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, but in other cities and towns throughout the entire county. The Executive Committee, Harbor Committee and Railroad Committee have each accomplished a great deal.

At certain meetings of the Harbor Committee have been the members of the Board of Directors, but property owners along the waterfront and citizens interested in the city and of obtaining the same have been present. At one of these meetings Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland met with very many prominent citizens and the entire matter was thoroughly gone over, resulting, through the efforts of our representatives in Congress, backed by the large membership of this organization, in securing a total appropriation, including unused balance on hand, of $327,500. To the conscientious work of Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland very much of the credit is due. While this matter was before the Congressional Committee, your representatives in Congress were in touch with the organization and through it the citizens of Oakland almost daily either by letter or telegram.

FOR WELFARE.

The Railroad Committee, members of the Board of Directors, extension shippers and prominent officials of the Southern Pacific company met in these rooms and very many matters of interest to and for the welfare of Oakland were discussed. Numerous complaints which had been brought by individuals, firms and corporations against this Chamber with a view to having same rectified, were brought to the attention of the railroad representatives, resulting in several changes for betterment of the service in Oakland and a far better understanding between the officials of the Southern Pacific company and the large shippers than has ever existed before. One of the results of the conference was that tickets can now be purchased from all Southern Pacific offices to Oakland, whereas in the past at some of the smaller stations tickets were only sold to San Francisco.

On February 17th over one hundred members of the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade were entertained by the Chamber of Commerce with a trolley ride around the city and into the suburbs, a banquet in the evening and visit to the theater at Alhambra. This was done at an expense of less than $200, and yet it is known that one member of that party alone since invested over $100,000 in the purchase of real estate in this vicinity. Two other members of that same party have made smaller investments.

ENTERTAIN MANY.

On March 19th a similar entertainment was given the members of the Seattle Commercial Club and since then two or more members of that organization are known to have become financially interested in Oakland.

Your Committee on Exhibit are proud to state that the Oakland

OIL COMPANY IS IN TROUBLE

Stockholders In Big Concern Alleged That Receiver Should Be Appointed.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 18.—Judge Pollock, in the United States district court here today, heard arguments upon the application of a Charles E. D. Pollock, stockholder, who last week asked the appointment of a receiver from the Uncle Sam Oil Company, and upon the petition filed yesterday at Fort Scott, Kansas, by other stockholders, who asked that it be declared a bankrupt and be placed in the hands of a receiver. The Fort Scott petitioners allege that the company is insolvent.

KANSAS CITY, April 18.—An executive board of three members will today take charge of the property of the Uncle Sam Oil Company and assume its entire management pending the settlement of the trouble in which the company is involved. Harry T. Tucker Jr., the indicted secretary, and the other officials, will retire from active participation in the company's affairs.

RUEF TRIAL GOES OVER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—"You're sure, Mr. Ruef," asked the TRIBUNE correspondent, "that Mr. Ruef's illness was not the result of vladys partaken of at the table of Elisor Biggs, yesterday?"

"I wouldn't bet for the world," said Biggs, "have anything like that take place in my house while I am Elisor."

"No," replied Ruef, "the Elisor meals are too plain to do anybody any harm."

"Do you, in any manner, fear poisoning under present conditions?" was asked of Ruef.

"No," was the reply. "I am corn fed and have a copper-lined stomach. I am not now trying to live high from a gastronomic standpoint. Elisor Biggs, however, insists upon my living high. He has me in the third story, believe so high, indeed, that I can look out miles at sea."

It was then the two-step was executed.

GETTING FAT.

"Plain or rich food, as the case may be, you're getting fat under my fatherly care," said Biggs.

"That's a fact," said Ruef in a half serious and half joking manner. "I've gained since I came under the beneficent paternal government of Elisor Biggs."

"When I rushed into the arms of Biggs," said Ruef, "I weighed 155 pounds, and now I weigh 162."

"That shows the good living you are having in my company," said Biggs.

"No," retorted Ruef, "it is only a reflex of the weighty responsibility you have assumed."

Ruef laughed, as did the others present, and then came the back-and-forth dancing, a dancing accompaniment by the dancer. He then turned to the correspondent and, with a wink, said: "I'm going to leave you to Elisor Mateo county. That'll be out of his jurisdiction, and then I'm going to tell him to go to hades."

DROPS DEAD IN HIS SHOP

Plumber Meets Sudden Death While at Work In Establishment.

George Lahr, a plumber having a shop on Seventh street between Adeline and Chestnut, dropped dead this morning. He was laid out in his shop. The cause, Coroner Tisdale will hold an inquest tomorrow evening.

NEGRO IS STRICKEN WITH RHEUMATISM

Bert Harrington, a negro youth employed at the West End cafe was removed to the Reformed Hospital suffering from an attack of rheumatism in the knees. The young man was stricken while in front of Paul Hamby's drug store in West Oakland, and had to be taken to the hospital in the police patrol.

APPOINTED DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT

Miss Alva Opie of Fruitvale has been appointed deputy county superintendent of schools by the County Superintendent, George W. Frick. Miss Opie's appointment is made under the provisions of the new county government act. She was formerly secretary of the Fruitvale Board of Education.

merce has worked with a similar committee from the Merchants' Exchange for the annexation of the outlying districts, but their efforts were without avail, the residents of the outlying sections having voted against consolidation.

The Chamber has been a prominent factor in the location of many families, firms and manufacturing plants in Oakland, but in the adjoining territory.

The shipping entering and departing from Oakland harbor is daily furnished by the Chamber of Commerce to the local newspapers.

Each Thursday noon the bank clearings for the week ending at that time are telephoned by this body to San Francisco and from there are wired Dun's and Bradstreet's, thus putting Oakland in the list of financial cities of prominence in the country.

Hundreds of strangers as well as very many of our own citizens visit these shores weekly, necessitating the imparting of a vast amount of information concerning the advantages of this section and many people who were in doubt as to where to locate in California are induced to remain in Oakland or in this vicinity.

In closing it can be stated that at no time within the past five years have so many investors, mainly Eastern people, been in daily converse with your secretary relative to the investment of capital as at the present time.

Respectfully,
EDWIN STEARNS,
Secretary.

"YEAR AGO" AND "TODAY" IN CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

Churches and Civic Bodies Celebrating the Phoenix Spirit--Congratulations From Portland Civic Bodies.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Just one year ago today—it would seem that everything would center on the expression—this city presented a spectacle of chaos, confusion and wreck which the world has seldom seen. The twelve months which succeeded have witnessed an equal marvel in the work of restoration and up-building.

Services of all nature will be held today to celebrate the reconstruction and to give thanks for all the good which came out of the evil. Sunny skies, clear weather and good cheer mark the day in vivid contrast to the holocaust conditions of a year ago.

TODAY'S PROGRAM.

The program arranged for the day and night is as follows:

United services will be held at Grace church, Sacramento and Taylor streets, and at the Church of the Advent, Eleventh street, near Market, at 7 p. m.

First Congregational church, Post and Mason streets, to be dedicated at 2 p. m.

Esper service of thanksgiving will be held at the First Unitarian church, Franklin and Geary streets, at 4 p. m.

Special services, at each of which there will be three speakers, will be held in the evening at 8 o'clock, at the following churches: First Baptist, 1620 O'Farrell; Trinity Presbyterian, Capp and Twenty-third; Wesley Methodist, Hayes and Buchanan; Calvary Presbyterian, Jackson and Fillmore.

The Building Trades Council will observe the day with appropriate exercises, beginning at 8 o'clock this evening, at Sheet Metal Workers' hall, 224 Guerrero street.

CIVIC DOINGS.

The members of the Fillmore-Street Improvement Association will celebrate the day by decorating their places of business and holding a big promenade concert in the evening.

The City Hall dome will be illuminated by the pressing of a button at the Hotel Fairmont this evening.

The anniversary banquet of the Merchants' Association will be held at the Fairmont Hotel this evening, and will be the largest and most noble affair of the kind ever held on the Pacific coast.

The event is the opening of the Fairmont and is an important one, and the spirit of its inception is that which has made possible the reconstruction of San Francisco.

Altogether the city will present a front to the world which has never before been equaled in history. The city government has decided that April 18, 1907, shall not be made a municipal holiday, but the celebrations of the evening will mark an epoch in the city's history.

Anniversary thanksgiving mass for preservation from harm on and since the 18th of last April was held this morning in all the Catholic churches of the city, when a special prayer to St. Emgdius was said. A proclamation has been issued by the Most Rev. Archbishop Riordan granting an indulgence of forty days to all who say the following prayer to St. Emgdius:

TO ST. EMDGIUS.

Most powerful Saint Emgdius, I humbly invoke thee as my special protector. I thank thee Most Holy Trinity that having chosen thee as its faithful minister, it has rendered thy name so glorious on earth and thy intercession so efficacious in heaven. I admire the faithfulness of thy devotion for the conversion of unbelievers and the continuous miracles that confirmed thy preaching, especially by the earthquakes that overthrew so many idols. I implore thee by all thy triumphs take me under thy protection and deliver me from the punishment I have deserved for my sins, especially from the scourge of earthquake. Obtain for me a short and peaceful agony and when I die, thy faithful charity at the hour of my death—Amen.

NEGRESS FACES SMALL CHARGE

Worried Husband Swears to Complaint Against His Chosen Spouse.

Lucy Wad, a negro woman set behind the bars in the police court this morning. She had been arrested last night on Sixth street, and a charge of petit larceny placed against her on the police blotter. The complaint was made at the instance of her husband who alleged that Lucy stole his clothing and deserted him. It is said the complaint was issued to get trace of the woman and induce her to set property as her husband is apparently a hard working, colored man who is willing to overlook the theft if she will return to him. Trial of the case was set for tomorrow morning.

Alleged Naval Demonstration Off Morocco Said to Be Unfounded.

PARIS, April 18.—It is asserted in official circles here that nothing in the nature of a French naval demonstration is intended off Morocco, Morocco, the French cruisers Le Lande, Robin and Gloire, it is added, are merely crossing the Moroccan coast, putting into various ports and preparing at all times to cope with eventualities. The reports received by the French government say that the situation is quieter than for some time past.

SHE DIED JUST AFTER DIVORCE

For This Reason B. F. Calhoun Will Not Receive His Former Wife's Estate.

Benjamin F. Calhoun will not receive any portion of his wife's $50,000 estate, because Judge Melvin signed a final decree of divorce this morning, making it effective on November 18, 1906, seven days before the death of Mrs. Minnie F. Calhoun. Calhoun attempted to break the will left by his former wife, alleging in his petition that the estate was community property. He claimed that the final decree of divorce had not been properly entered and that at the time of Mrs. Calhoun's death he was still her husband.

She had been granted an interlocutory decree over a year before her death on the ground of Calhoun's extreme cruelty. It was charged in the divorce that the husband, who was at one time a politician and union labor man, abused his wife and other persons. On one occasion he is said to have thrown an alarm clock at her.

It was probable because of these complaints that Mrs. Calhoun, when she died, left her estate of Berkeley realty to her brother, John Flaker, and her sister, Maggie Frick. The brother and sister had a final decree of divorce signed last March but dated for the early part of November.

Calhoun protested this decree and this morning the decision of Judge Melvin was made in omitting Calhoun from the $50,000 estate.

Attorney General of Columbus Orders Organization Into Receiver's Hands.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 18.—The Ancient Order of United Workmen was today ousted from the state upon the petition of Attorney General Ellis to the county court, which ordered that the association should do no more business in Ohio as a fraternal insurance concern. Its affairs in Ohio were ordered placed in the hands of receivers.

STRIKE IS NOW AT DEADLOCK

Laundry Workers Refuse to Appear Further—Say Employers Must Negotiate.

Everything is at a deadlock in the Laundry Workers' Union. The strikers wish the employers to express the first desire to arbitrate the matter of settling the strike and then confer with the officers of the union. The strikers will not ask them to do this until they let them come to us," they say. "We will not go to them under any circumstances. They are the only sufferers." The strikers declare they are not suffering from the strike.

A great deal of solid linen is being transported to Richmond and other suburban cities, where many of the unemployed men and women are now employed. The few hundred laundry workers that are remaining are not idle. Despite the fact that not one laundry employer in Alameda county has signed the agreement and there is no indication that the strike is to end soon.

WILL FURNISH NEEDED RELIEF

City Engineer Turner Visits Scene of Proposed Sewer Extension.

City Engineer Turner, accompanied by Street Superintendent Ott, visited the site of the extension of the Ninth-avenue sewer, this morning. It has been decided that temporary relief is to be given the residents of that section by building two blocks of temporary sewer from the cesspool complained of, this reaching to the bay. This work it is said, will prove satisfactory in the summer months, and will be inexpensive. It will give an outlet to the Eighth and Ninth avenue sewers and relieve the cesspool complained of according to Turner.

Meanwhile the bids for permanent work in the sewers will be asked and City Engineer Turner says there will be enough saving in the difference between the new bids and those to be presented, to more than pay for the wait and erecting of the temporary work.

RUEF CASE IS CONTINUED; WILL BE RESUMED SHORTLY

Defendant Declares That the Trial Can Proceed Despite Absence of Chief Counsel Henry Ach.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The case of Abraham Ruef in Judge Dunne's court, on the charge of extortion, was this morning continued until tomorrow at 1 o'clock, owing to the sudden and severe illness of Attorney Ach, leading counsel for the defendant. Ach is now in the Lane hospital. There is no certainty that he will be able to be on hand tomorrow, but hopes are entertained that such may be the case.

COUNSEL'S PLEA.
Ach's illness was brought to the attention of Judge Dunne this morning by Attorney Samuel M. Shortridge, who, when the case was called, arose and said:

"I regret to be obliged to advise the court that Mr. Ach, of counsel for the defense, has been very sick; almost unto death, and that he is sick even at this moment. He is now lying in Lane's hospital and is under the care of physicians who are with him. I have just come from the hospital and I am pleased to report that he is better, but in bed and very weak. I have here a certificate from the physicians in attendance, Dr. Edsall, Dr. Gibbon, and Dr. Gibbon. It sets forth as follows:

"Mr. Ach is in our charge in Lane Hospital suffering from a sudden and severe attack of pneumonia and it will not be possible for him to be in court tomorrow. This was dated last night at 9 o'clock."

As I have stated, continued Shortridge, "Mr. Ach is in bed and I hope he may be able to attend court tomorrow. I will therefore, ask your honor to continue this case until tomorrow morning."

JOHNSON'S REGRETS.
"It is with deep regret," said Attorney Johnson of counsel for prosecution, "that I learned this morning of the serious illness of Mr. Ach, of counsel for the defense. It was the first I heard of it. We, therefore, unite with the defense in the request for a continuance of this case until tomorrow morning at the usual hour."

ESCAPE CHALLENGE.
The twelve talesmen who have passed both sides, but who are yet subject to pre-emptory challenge, were in the box. The challenge in question was to have been exercised this morning, but was continued until the case can be resumed. The talesmen were accordingly excused until tomorrow.

AS TO FUTURE.
Ruef was asked by THE TRIBUNE correspondent as to whether the case would be proceeded with in the event that Attorney Ach's illness might keep that gentleman away from the court for an indefinite period and replied: "If Mr. Ach should not be able to be on hand tomorrow morning when my case is called, there will be another continuance asked until Monday next. The continuance will, in all probability, be granted. If Mr. Ach shall not be able to be on hand Monday morning, we will ask for no further continuance. We will proceed with the examination of the talesmen and continue, hoping that Mr. Ach may not long be detained in the hospital or at his home."

DEPEND ON ACH.
The illness of Ach has caused, at this time, a great deal of annoyance to Messrs. Shortridge, Edsall and Murphy, of counsel for the defendant. Ach, as leader of the defense, examined all the talesmen, with the exception of three, and these latter were questioned by Mr. Shortridge, two of the three being handled by that gentleman yesterday afternoon, after Ach had been compelled to retire from the court. It was Ach who was to have decided as to which of the twelve talesmen who are now in the jury box were to be pre-emptorily challenged and excused from serving. As that challenge was to have been handled by that gentleman yesterday afternoon, after Ach had been compelled to retire from the court, it was Ach who was to have decided as to which of the twelve talesmen who are now in the jury box were to be pre-emptorily challenged and excused from serving. As that challenge was to have been handled by that gentleman yesterday afternoon, after Ach had been compelled to retire from the court, it was Ach who was to have decided as to which of the twelve talesmen who are now in the jury box were to be pre-emptorily challenged and excused from serving.

Each attorney had his own idea as to which of the talesmen should be excused, but he did not know the men whom Ach had slated for rejection. Speaking on this subject, this morning, Judge Edsall said:

AS TO EXCUSING.
"Associate counsel could not hope to pre-emptorily challenge the talesmen this morning. We had not conferred with Mr. Ach on the subject and it was he who had the deciding opinion in the matter of rejecting a juror. We were not able to speak to him last night and, of course, we must hold our opinions in abeyance until we can at least learn from him how he feels toward the talesmen."

DINED WITH ACH.
It was Judge Edsall who was with Ach yesterday when that attorney partook of a meal which almost cost him his life. In fact, the judge dined with the same eatables which had prostrated Ach. He told the story today, to THE TRIBUNE correspondent, as follows:

"Mr. Ach and I went to dinner together yesterday. We sat down in a restaurant on Fillmore street and ordered a liberal dinner. In the order were mussels and mushrooms. The mushrooms were not as has been stated, canned."

"Mr. Ach ate heartily of the mussels and mushrooms. I do not know whether it was the mushrooms or the mussels which caused Mr. Ach's suffering. I know that I partook freely of the mushrooms, but I did not like the mussels. They seemed to me to be too soft, so I passed them by lightly. Mr. Ach seemed to enjoy them."

"When we left the restaurant, there was no indication on the part of Mr. Ach that he had not enjoyed his meal. The poison, however, had not had time, I suppose, to affect his system."

Doing Business Again.
"When my friends thought I was about to take leave of this world, on account of indigestion, nervousness and general debility," writes A. A. Chisholm, Treasurer of the Pacific States Telephone Company, "I was persuaded to try Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say that they are curing me. I am now doing business again as of old, and am still gaining daily." Best of all testimonials. Guaranteed by Ospeck's, druggists, 7th and Broadway, and 21st and Washington, Oakland, 50 cents.

Nelson, an employee of the railway mail service. Most of the money was found buried under Nelson's house.

BATTLESHIP IS IN COMMISSION

United States Ship Kansas Enters Service With Appropriate Ceremonies.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.—The battleship Kansas was placed in commission at the League Island Navy Yard with appropriate ceremonies today. The exercises took place upon the quarter deck of the Kansas and were witnessed only by the officers of the battleship, members of the crew and attaches of the navy yard.

The orders of the Navy Department at Washington placing the battleship in commission and appointing Captain Charles E. Vreeland in command were read to those present who were drawn up at attention.

At the conclusion of the reading of the orders, Captain Vreeland gave the navy yard officials a receipt acknowledging that he had received the Kansas "in good order and condition," after which the pennant of the new commander was run to the masthead and the ceremonies were ended.

Governor of New Mexico Leaves Office—Roosevelt Appoints George Curry.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Governor Hagerman of New Mexico, against whom charges were preferred, has tendered his resignation, and the President today announced the appointment of Captain George Curry, Governor of Samar Province, P. I., as Governor of New Mexico.

Governor Hagerman was recently in Washington to answer the charges which related to the transfer of territorial lands to a Pennsylvania development company. While here he had a long interview with the President and Secretary Garfield about the charges, which he declared were the result of political intrigue.

CHILD IS HELD FOR PAYMENT

Mother Must Institute Civil Proceeding to Get Boy Out of Bondage.

Mrs. Margaret Krueck, a refugee who has been residing in Oakland since the earthquake, asked the police yesterday to aid her in recovering her three-year-old boy. Mrs. Krueck says that Mrs. Jesus Alcantar of 2247 Center street, Berkeley, is holding the youngster until a boardbill of $50 for his care is paid.

After coming to Oakland Mrs. Krueck says she found herself unable to give the child the attention required. She engaged Mrs. Alcantar to care for him and now owes the money for his attention. Being unable to pay it she wants to stop expense and take her boy, but Mrs. Alcantar refuses to give him up.

The woman was informed that the only way in which she could compel Mrs. Alcantar to give up the child would be to institute a civil suit. This the mother asserts she will do.

So Says Bishop Grant at the A. M. E. Church Board Meeting.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The financial board of the African M. E. Church is holding its annual meeting here with members present from many of the large cities. Bishop Grant, in an address, declared that "after forty-four years of freedom the American negro is no longer an object of charity, nor the ward of the nation."

WARM FIGHT IN THE D. A. R.

Two Tickets in the Field for the General Officers, One of Them "Insurgent."

WASHINGTON, April 18.—That Mrs. Donald McLean of New York will be re-elected president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution by the Continental Congress today, her friends claim is practically assured. The opposition forces are centered on Mrs. Walter Harvey Weed of Montana, or Mrs. Charles Lippert of this city.

"The insurgents" admit that all opposition may be withdrawn after the first ballot, reported to the police by the fact that Mrs. McLean will be made president-general by acclamation.

The election of the other national officers, however, will be more exciting as more than one candidate has been selected for every office. In opposition to Mrs. Charlotte E. Main, for the vice-president generalship of the organization of chapters, there is Mrs. J. Eppley.

The remainder of the ticket of the opposing factions is as follows:

NOMINATIONS.
The hall was filled to overflowing. Two candidates were nominated for president general, Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Elizabeth E. Howard of Alexandria. The indication that Mrs. McLean did not have the unanimous support of her own state delegation was the nomination by Mrs. Little of Rochester of Mrs. Howard and the seconding of it by Mrs. Herron Crossman of New York.

Several states voted solidly for Mrs. McLean, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York and Indiana being divided. Virginia was divided also, while Colorado voted for Mrs. Howard.

POSTPONE THE GLASS TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The arraignment of Louis Glass, general manager of the Pacific States Telephone Company, was postponed for one week in Judge Sawyer's court this morning with the consent of the District Attorney's office. The same action was taken in regard to A. K. Detweiler, the Home Telephone magnate, whose whereabouts Sheriff O'Neill again reported himself unable to discover.

T. C. Coogan, attorney for Glass, stated that he would be ready to introduce a demurrer to the bribery indictment next Thursday. On condition that the papers would be ready by that time Assistant District Attorney John O'Garra and C. W. Cobb consented to the delay. No reference was made to the further indictments expected against Glass, who was present in court this morning.

KEANE GOES OUT OF LOCAL POLITICS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Senator George Keane has at length decided to abandon local official political life and to enter upon the practice of his profession as a lawyer in this city.

He has opened an office here and will, to a greater or lesser extent, be identified with the cases in which Ruef and Mayor Schmitz are to be tried on the charges of bribery and extortion.

Senator Keane is a talented young man. He has long been a political associate of both Schmitz and Ruef. At one time he filled the office of secretary to Mayor Schmitz and subsequently became clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Since the recent exposure of bribery of the Supervisors that body has made a change in incumbency of the clerkship. A move was then made to restore Keane to his old position as secretary to the Mayor, but that move has not materialized. The finding of another position for the incumbent, Secretary Boyle.

Some difficulty was encountered in that move and accordingly, the idea of returning Keane to the position of Mayor's secretary, has been dissipated by the determination of Senator Keane to resume the practice of his profession.

WOMAN IS "ALL BROKE UP" WHEN DEEDING PROPERTY

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Mrs. Mary E. Colby was "all broke up" when she decided over her property to the Mercantile, Pava & Co., so her brother-in-law, Alfred J. Williams, testified in Judge Murasky's court this morning.

By "all broke up" Williams, a mild-mannered gentleman from Vallejo, explained that he meant that Mrs. Colby paced up and down the rooms moaning and crying, "It will kill me if they send Fannie to jail." Once she fainted.

The scene took place in the Colby home in Los Angeles on the morning of November 19, 1904. The brother-in-law was there on a visit. He had theretofore found Mrs. Colby in an unusually jovial mood. The information of her daughter's trouble was conveyed in a newspaper, set off with startling headlines. It told that Fannie, the trusted bookkeeper, had made away with nearly $10,000 of her employers' money, with a sensational story of auto loads of merry blades and gay young women and wine spilled in the various roadhouses about San Francisco. The tale was lurid in details and drove the poor mother distracted.

The witness went on to tell that Mrs. Colby was first informed through the district attorney's office that her daughter had been brought to Los Angeles and how the three had held a weeping feast in the room where Fannie was a guest.

Among the important questions that were asked him, said Williams, was one by Attorney Lawler, representing the Mercantile, who wanted to know whether Mrs. Colby had ready money.

Both sides apparently wanted the witness to testify as to the mother's excitement. The prosecution wishes it to appear that Mrs. Colby was so distracted that she did not know what she was doing when she decided over the property of her father's imprisonment being misrepresented. The defense, on the other hand, would show that Mrs. Colby's fears were justified, as her actions indicated.

Miss Fannie, the heroine of the suit, which has never appeared in the criminal court, is excluded from the room during the testimony of all witnesses.

Mrs. Colby fainted near the end of the testimony, and had to be carried from the courtroom.

LEFT MARRIAGE QUESTION TO BE SETTLED BY SEAS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—A romance corked up in a bottle! A love story went within a fragile prison of glass. An engagement committed to the unequal chances of the ocean. A trifling with Cupid that by some fortunate hap did not rouse the resentment of the little archer!

Exclamations aside, here is the story of how a maid and a man cast their happiness into the sea, reeking lightly of the event, and how life bread upon the waters it was returned to them.

Posing with every swell of the waves that break on the beach at Fort Baker, riding up the shingly sands on the back of the combers and tumbling out to sea amid the tumult of the white caps, a commonplace sort of battle sported in the ocean near Sausalito until it was the inside chances of the ocean that really aroused by the time that he had drawn the cork and fished out the card.

The card was the conventional engraved pasteboard and underneath the name it bore was the pencilled legend: "Please return this card to T. A. S., 2118 Fillmore street."

Hamilton did so and in acknowledgment of his act received a note which unfolded the "Romance of the Card Found in a Bottle."

Here is the letter: "No. 2118 Fillmore street, city—Dear

Friend Hamilton: I take great pleasure in thanking you for the return of the card you found in a bottle near Fort Baker. I was out with a party of my friends on Sunday, March 24, on the beach at Fort Point, when, spying a bottle on the beach, I made what you might term a very novel bet to the effect that if the card which I placed inside was returned we were to be married within a month after. So you see it's up to me now. Thanking you very much for your trouble, I remain yours, in a bottle, So Thomas A. Scott and Miss Fannie Smith, after venturing their life happiness on the chances of the water that roared between Fort Baker and Fort Point, have found the caprice of fate approving their risklessness when nearly a month has passed. They will be married on the 24th of April, just one month after they ventured for sport with the little blind god who sows everything.

As for H. A. Hamilton—well, he treasures an empty bottle and some times, no doubt, he fancies that like a shell it has caught the mysterious music of the sea and murmurs of a happy romance.

KANSAS CITY, April 18.—There was a little fall of snow here and generally over western Missouri today. The weather is mild.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the cruel disease, Rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them, until two years ago when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. CHURCH WEDDING.

The marriage of W. B. Pageol of this city and Miss Ida May Williams of San Francisco took place Tuesday evening in Howard Presbyterian Church. About 300 friends and relatives assembled at the church to witness the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Isabel Wilkie and Miss Hazel Pageol. Claud Pageol acted as best man. The ushers were Edgar Owens, George Neice and Oscar Dohrman. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Margaret Williams, a gifted musician and very active in church circles. The bridegroom is one of the foremost automobile men of Oakland and is prominent in fraternal circles. Mr. and Mrs. Pageol will reside in Oakland upon returning from an extended southern trip.

AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Walter Morgan entertained recently at an informal luncheon and card party for Mrs. George A. Scott. Red carnations and ferns made the pretty decorations. Covers were laid for Mrs. Scott, Mrs. L. $25 Furnishes $25 Bedroom Completely

Through this bedroom outfit we want to make an introduction of our store, its methods, prices, and treatment to every reader of this advertisement. We advertise "Satisfaction or your money back." Thousands have tried us and not one has wanted his money. On the other hand there have been continuous expressions of good will and appreciation of our Furniture, prices and treatment. We invite you to try us, and as an inducement to begin now, we offer you the following:

All for $25.00

The Bed

Full size, three quarter or single; well braced, having angle iron rails, brass vases on posts—a strong and tasty bed

The Spring

Not the loose-edge, thin wires you nearly always buy at special sales. Ours is made of heavy timber, so it will hold its shape. The web is closely woven and the sides are strengthened by rope edges.

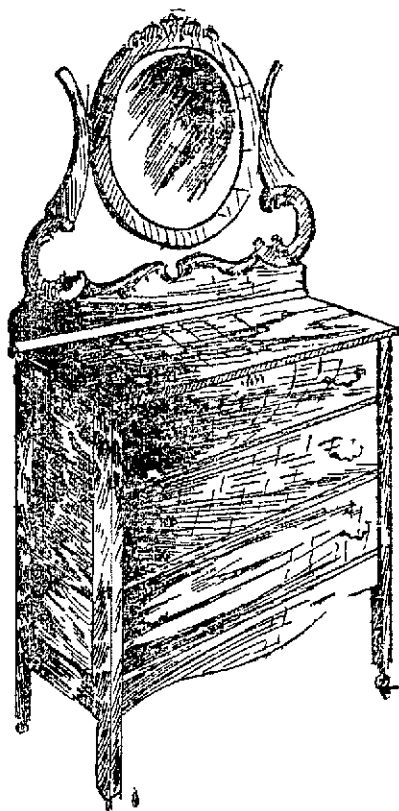

The Mattress

All new material—no shoddy or old rags, but absolutely fresh and clean. Heavily padded with cotton and well tufted, full five-inch box, comfortable and good.

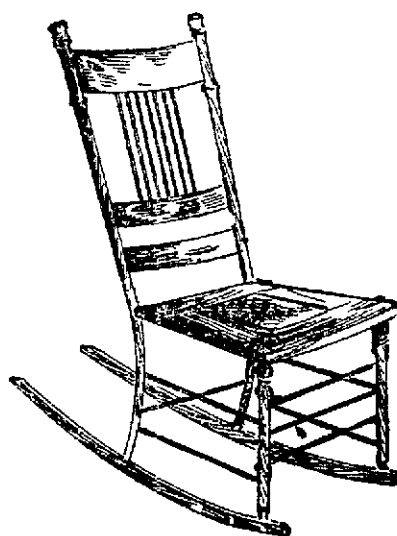

The Table

A neat design of stand-table, just the thing for bedroom use. Golden finish.

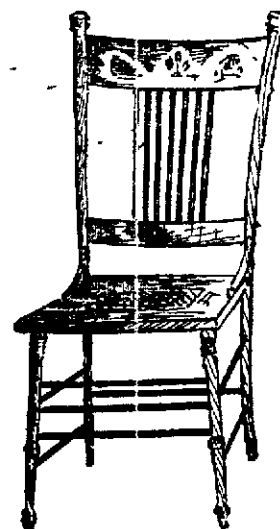

The Dresser

Solid oak throughout, French plate oval mirror, beveled, golden finish. The cut doesn't do it justice. There are other shaped mirrors if desired.

Rocker and Chairs

This set includes a rocker and two chairs to match. They all are solid oak with cane seats.

The Matting

A neat pattern of the heavy China matting has been selected for the floor covering. It is easily cleaned and wears well. 16 yards.

The Pillows

each filled with 2½ pounds. The pillows are made of well-cured, soft feathers, which are enclosed in high-grade tick.

Our customers are welcome to substitute any article in place of those above or to omit anything not needed and the price will be made proportionate.

STUDENT IS BOLD THUG

Takes to 'Gun and Masks' to Get Needed Money for Completing Course.

BERKELEY, April 18.—A novice, thought to be a University student, who was hard pressed for funds to carry him through the rest of the college term, attempted a bold hold up last night at the entrance to the campus near Alameda way. It is the opinion of H. A. Overstreet, the victim, that it was a youthful collegian who ordered him to hold up his hands at the point of a six shooter.

Overstreet is connected with the business department of the Rehabilitation Committee of San Francisco, and resides at University cottage No. 5. He was homeward bound, after a late night of work, when he was confronted by a short stout fellow, who rose up from the bushes just inside the campus grounds, holding the big gun within an inch of his victim's face, and ordering him to hold up his hands. To this request Overstreet complied, but in doing so made a few more motions than the inexperienced thug expected.

WESTERN PACIFIC WILL BEGIN WORK AT ONCE ALONG OAKLAND ESTUARY

$2,500,000 IS TO BE SPENT

In Constructing the Mole and Depot Buildings in This City.

In the construction of the mole and fitting depot structure the Western Pacific railroad is planning to spend more than $2,500,000 within seventeen months. The latest instructions received by the engineers are to have the main line of the road completed from Salt Lake City to Oakland not later than the end of September, 1908. Every energy is being put forth to accomplish this result. In fact it is required by the terms of the blanket mortgage but the interests of Gould demand that this time be cut down as much as possible and to do it every facility and improvement of modern railroad building will be utilized.

WORK ON TERMINAL

With this view paramount the management of the road has decided to commence at once on the work of constructing its transbay terminal along the north training wall of the Oakland estuary.

This work will involve the filling in of a mole 1000 feet in width and between 4000 and 5000 feet in length. Between the east end of this mole and the Oakland property already secured by the company there is a piece of ground owned by the Southern Pacific across which its Peralta street and other tracks run.

It is the intention to condemn a strip across this piece of property 80 feet wide and about 2000 feet long, provided such a right of way cannot be secured by outright purchase.

LITIGATION ON

Gould and Harriman have not yet ended their litigation over the ownership of that part of the Oakland water front where the new mole is to be located. The status of the litigation is this: The Southern Pacific is preparing a writ of review to the United States Supreme Court against the adverse decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. In spite of the unfinished condition of the case the Western Pacific people are going ahead with their work.

Diagram showing proposed Oakland mole of the Western Pacific and the Peralta strip, owned by the Southern Pacific, over which right of way may have to be condemned.

By their decision in the matter there arises a strong probability that Gould and Harriman have come to an understanding. In fact it is believed Harriman is not going to interfere with work on the new mole and will also give a right of way across his Peralta tract piece of ground at a reasonable price because of an agreement to the effect that Gould will pay the Southern Pacific for his transbay site in case a final decision of the Supreme Court favors the Harriman ownership.

STRONG-ARMED MAN AMAZES BIG CROWD

Breaks the Punching Bag--Blows Up Lung Testers and Other Sandow Feats.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Great excitement was created on Fillmore street shortly before midnight last night over the appearance of a mysterious and phenomenally strong man, accompanied by a beautifully dressed young woman, bedecked with diamonds and jewelry. It was just before the theater crowd had dispersed that a large, canopied automobile drove up in front of one of the numerous penny arcades and an immaculately groomed man, of possibly 25 years, and a stunning and beautifully dressed young woman got out and made their way into the amusement place.

Their appearance attracted the attention of the regular nightly throng in this block on Fillmore street. Several persons who were standing idly on the sidewalk followed them in.

The man went to the cashier, where he exchanged some small silver for pennies and then went back to where he had left his companion, and gave her some of the coin and the two commenced looking into the numerous picture machines in the place. After they had finished the rounds of the pictures the man went over to the other side of the arcade and stuck a penny in what is known as the "straight arm" or "jab" punching machine, and stepping back but a few inches raised his arm and struck forward. What followed left the patrons of the place gawping in wide-eyed astonishment for the strength of his blow, which was hardly more than a short-arm jab, had sent the indicator spinning many times past the recording figures on the dial, and simultaneously loosening every spring and bolt in the machine, it fell to the floor as if it had been so much clay.

The attaché of the arcade went where the young man stood and stared at him in wonder, and were deciding on what course to take, when the gentleman of immaculate dress put his hand in his pocket and pulled out a roll of bills, three inches thick, ranging from $20 to $100 and paid for the damage in full, handing the attendant an extra $10 bill for his trouble.

A large crowd had assembled and all were anxious to get a glimpse of the mysterious stranger. It was their opinion that the machine had been broken by purely a freak of chance, but nevertheless all eyes were upon him when he went over to the lung testing machine and picked up the tube and blew into it. A loud report followed and the mammoth glass bulb of the machine sounded as if shot out of a cannon against a stone wall. People were soaked with water in the bulb, which was used for the purpose of recording the amount of pressure, and once more the cry of astonishment went up and once more the stranger dug down into his pockets.

It was evident by now that the man was not playing in mere luck, but was a most remarkable individual, whose phenomenal feat of strength had never been witnessed before by any of those present. All the time the stranger was as self-composed as when he first entered. He started over to one of the other machines, but was stopped by an attendant who requested that he be a little more careful. By this time the place had become filled, and the man this time took hold of the handle of one of the wrist testing machines and stepping back gave a slight turn and the big iron deer, which formed the body of the machine, snapped like a piece of glass. The springs and bolts flew in every direction, breaking many of the intricate and damaging many of the automatic machines in the establishment. The attaches refused to allow him to continue, although he willingly settled for everything.

He made his way, then, through the crowd of people to the side of the young woman and together the two made their way out to the automobile and ordered their chauffeur to hurry them away. Two or three other automobiles, that had pulled up in front of the resort after the crowd had assembled followed in pursuit, but were unable to keep up with the big car, which soon lost them in the darkness of the ruins, and the identity of the remarkable man still remains a mystery.

AMERICANS TO BE DELEGATES

Complete List of Those Who Will Attend Red Cross Conference in London.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The complete American delegation to the International Red Cross conference, which will open in London, June 10th, was named today by the State department, as follows: Surgeon General Robert O'Reilly, representing the army; medical director John W. Wise, for the navy; Colonel William Carey Sanger, for the American Red Cross board; Ernest Rickard of Chicago, and Miss Mabel T. Boardman of Washington.

Mr. Rickard will be in charge of relief work at San Francisco following the earthquake and fire, and will make an extensive report upon the subject of Red Cross work in connection with great calamities.

NEW COAST DEFENSE GUNS ARE PLANNED

The War Department has completed plans for a new type of 14-inch-caliber gun, which will be added to the existing coast defense system. Work on the new weapon will be commenced at the Watervliet arsenal at an early date. It has not yet been determined, however, whether the guns will be of the ordinary built-up forged-steel type or of the more modern wire-bound construction.

This new gun, while fully two inches larger in caliber than the regulation coast-defense gun of the first grade, will be smaller in every other measurement and of lighter weight. The in-

ICE TRUST HAS BEEN INDICTED

Ohio Grand Jury Returns Several True Bills Against Prominent Men.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 18.—The grand jury, which adjourned a day or two ago, returned secret indictments against the members of the ice trust in this city, on the ground that they had conspired in restraint of trade. The men indicted are C. M. Kinnard, W. W. Polkey, D. O. Davis, Sterling Woodard, F. C. Stockdale, D. H. Norville and W. J. Phillips. It was not known until today when they were arrested that they had been indicted.

tention is to construct a weapon with a range and striking force equal to the present standard 12-inch gun, but which will greatly exceed the limited life of that gun.

The expensive 12-inch guns now in use will not be displaced by the new 14-inch gun, but the new type will be supplied whenever there are additions to the defenses. It is insisted by the department that the first cost of the new gun will be considerably less than that of the 12-inch gun, while the addition to the life of the weapon will result in still further increased economy.

HARRY THAW DESPONDENT IN CELL OF THE TOMBS

Declined to Go to Prison Ward--Is Visited by an Alienist and Some of His Lawyers.

NEW YORK, April 18.—It became known today that Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe, one of the alienists who testified for the defense in the recent trial of Harry K. Thaw, spent two hours with Thaw in his cell in the Tombs last night.

A. B. Peabody of Thaw's counsel, was present during the interview, but neither he nor Dr. Jelliffe would say anything today. Thaw remained in bed yesterday morning until 9 o'clock and only chose to see his counsel when Warden Flynn suggested to him that if he were ill he might go to the hospital ward. It was said at the prison that Mr. Peabody had summoned Dr. Jelliffe to attend Thaw because Dr. McGuire, the regular Tombs physician, is suffering from a slight attack of tonsillitis.

Roger O'Mara, the former Pittsburgh chief of police, who has had charge of the detective work of the defense, came to New York today in response to a request from Thaw. He will have a talk with the prisoner before returning to Pittsburgh.

INSTRUCT LAND FRAUD JURORS

Defense Submits Numerous Requests in Trial of Binger Hermann.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The defense submitted its requests as to the trial of Binger Hermann, charged with destroying public records. The defense urged that the jury should be charged that there is no evidence to show that Mr. Hermann had any connection with the alleged Hyde-Benson land fraud, also that in order to convict four things must be found by the jury:

First, that one or more of the conspiracies alleged must be found to exist; second, that the defendant was in some manner connected with one or more of such conspiracies; third, that there was something in the books destroyed that would tend to show the defendant's connection with the alleged conspiracies; and fourth, that he destroyed the books to keep secret this conspiracy.

Considerable attention was given in the prayers to the exact construction which should be given to the word "fraudulent" as it is used in the statute under which Mr. Hermann is being tried.

Why the Custom Style Of Women's Regals Stays

If Women's Regals were stylish only for the first week or two, they would be no different from a good many other shoes.

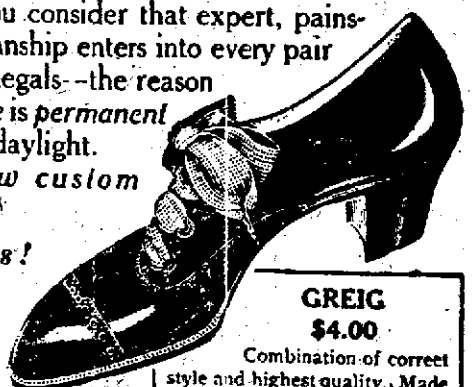

But Women's Regals keep the same accurate shape to the last day. (That means there must be something unusual about what they are made of and how they are made—and there is.

Finest quality materials—that's the foundation. And when you consider that expert, painstaking workmanship enters into every pair of Women's Regals—the reason why their style is permanent is as clear as daylight.

SPORTS EDITED BY EDDIE SMITH SPORTS EDITOR SMITH INTERVIEWS BIG BILL SQUIRES

Bill Squires the much talked of Australian fighter who has come to this country in search of fame and fortune landed in San Francisco yesterday and was received with pomp that has never before been a champion pugilist's good fortune to receive. Judging from the newspaper men and camera fiends that greeted him one would suppose that some diplomat on an important mission to this country was landing instead of the champion fighter of Australia. The well set jaw and steady determined eye gave the Australian all the appearances of being a fighter by nature as much as cultivation and his well-rounded body would lead one to believe that he will strip larger than he looks in street attire. His sloping shoulders and apparently well muscled back is an indication of punching power, and if the new comer knows anything at all about the game of fistuffs he most likely has a punch that will prove a sleep producer when it lands. Squires is one of the cleanest athletes that has come to this country in years, he is a very quiet and unassuming fellow and his habits according to his manager, Reynolds, are of the best. In trying to get some information as to the fighting record and history of the Antipodan it is necessary to peg away with a string of questions as long as your arm for Bill so far has volunteered nothing as to his bility in coming to this country seems set on is that he will not fight for about two months. Bill has assumed a deal of responsibility in coming to this country in the matter of representing his country among the great fighters of the day, and as all his friends in Australia have insisted that he is the greatest fighter that the country has turned out for many years he is more than anxious to make good in his first start. He in all probability will immediately establish training quarters at San Rafael and start preparing himself for a vigorous campaign. There is absolutely nothing that can be said of his fighting ability other than has been said as he has shown nothing except his record and of course as we do not know the ability of the men that he has beaten we are still in the air as to whether or not he is to prove a bloomer. Squires denounces the story that he avoided Jack Johnson in Australia as a fabrication and unworthy of notice, Bill says that when Johnson landed in Australia he had made all preparations to leave and as he could see no chance of making any money by meeting the negro he refused to postpone his trip. When asked as to who he would like to take on first he replied that he would be guided by information he would receive from friends in America and by the actions of the club managers. He also announced that if the O'Brien-Burns contest took place at Los Angeles he would be on hand to witness the event and his interest in the coming battle would indicate that he has his eye on the winner of this contest. Squires and his manager are being entertained by Jack McNamara and have been installed in rooms at the Park Panhandle.

BILL SQUIRES said to be the best fighter Australia has turned out recently.

It is rumored that a new fight trust has been formed and that Levy, Greggains, Garney and Coffroth will soon make a bid to tie up all the fight permits for the coming year. The organization if it has been formed has been very secretive and the followers of the game along Fillmore street received a shock when it leaked out that the promoters had again entered into a combination. The fans had enough of this sort of thing last year and are not in the least anxious to experience another year of warring trust partners. Coffroth smiled when asked if the story was true that he had again entered into a combination with his old rival Grancy and replied, "not for mine, I have my own club, the Yosemite Club, and I will independently make a bid for permits and fights, I have had enough of the trust problem and you can say for me that I am alone in the game or not in it at all." Grancy also ridicules the idea of his being connected with the trust and says that he is too busy to think of fights, his action in making application for the May permit does not bear him out in this statement, however, and the chances are that Eddie is working night and day trying for a permit and a good card. If the new trust is formed with Willie Britt out of it there is some chance of it going along smoothly, not because Britt was the disturbing element but because it will break the old combinations, the idea of Grancy and Coffroth again hooking up together is hardly imaginable and the chances are that the talk of a new trust is just an idle rumor, or a proposition whereby the managers will corral all the permits and divide them equally among the four promoters.

OAKLAND COMMUTERS BEAT PORTLAND IN SLOW GAME

North Men Display Very Little Ginger and Lose Without Putting Up Anything Like a Struggle.

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN. The hard hitting Oakland bunch took the hard boiled athletes of Portland into camp at Recreation Park in San Francisco yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 2. The Oakland team outplayed the Portlanders in every department of the game and the wonder was that they did not rob up a bigger score. Portland fielded in wretched condition and at the end of the game the official score marked up three misplays against the team from the north. Groom, the old youngster from the Portland team was on the firing line for the Northmen and he pitched the poorest game he has yet shown. Groom was not strong very hard, but he pitched a very unimpressive game and this lost the contest for him. The Oakland team batted and fielded in great union, and their team work helped them largely to the victory. Cates made his initial appearance on the rubber for the Oakland team and his work was of a high order. He allowed the hard boiled athletes from the north only six hits, and kept them so well scattered that they were only able to roll up two runs. Jimmy Smith batted into the star play of the day. His star performance was pulled off in the fifth inning. With Devereaux out, Cates walked around to third on a ripping single by Smith. Van Halten then squeezed Cates across the plate. Smith was on the job and hustled himself to the plate before a throw could be made to that point. Smith's play was the prettiest piece of base running seen on the coast in a long time and the fans cheered the midget for fully three minutes. Oakland got busy with Groom in the very first inning and a hit, and some had playing by the Portland bunch netted the Commuters a run. In the fifth inning Oakland played some real high class baseball and by

DOLLY GRAY IN FINE FORM

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—With about the same crippled line-up which went against the Angels on Monday, Tuesday, the Seals tried to repeat the performance today and were defeated, 2 to 0. Gray was pitching his best and only two Seals reached the third station. Long put in a new pitcher, named Willis and the locals made ten swats off him, but only those in the first and second innings counted for anything. The score:

DAD MOULTON PREDICTS A STRUGGLE

Interest in the intercollegiate field day, which takes place at Berkeley on Saturday afternoon, continues to increase as the time of the contest approaches, and judging from the many predictions that are being made as to the probable outcome of the meet, it is certain that the followers of athletics at both universities are expecting a close field day between the University of California and Stanford. Some of the entrants seem like certain point winners, it is interesting to note the difference of opinion among the students as to the ability of some of the athletes to place on Saturday. On the part of the Stanford runners seem to have the better of the outlook; but as the exceptionally good times recorded at the cardinal institution have all been made on a track that will permit much faster times, the results obtained by the Stanford athletes cannot be taken too seriously when the disadvantage that a visiting team on the Berkeley track must contend with is considered. In the fourth annual meet, Dad Moulton, the veteran trainer in charge of the track squad from Palo Alto, states that on the track at Stanford he would expect the big meet to be a margin of eight points, but as the track at Berkeley seems to puzzle some of his men, it looks like an even break, all things considered. Continuing, he says, "I have had a great deal of experience, and I feel sure that it will be a great meet, and will be decided in favor of the team that makes the greatest fight. If every man comes through on our team, we should win by a small margin, the 100 and 420 yards, and the 440 should be one of the grandest races ever seen in a contest between the two colleges. The mile and two-mile runs will be close, and I expect to see Hall recover enough to win the high jump. On the jump and the hammer throw, with the pole vault an even break between Zoph and Langan. All in all it should be one of the best field days ever held. While California has several men who are sure to capture the events, they are sure to capture the mile and the two-mile runs, and I expect this will assist them in a large way to win the meet."

The change of opinion that now exists at Stanford is in a large way accounted for by the decisive manner in which the blue and gold defeated the University of Southern California track aggregation a week ago. There has been some gradual development at Berkeley which will be

ATHLETICS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

At a meeting of the Athenian Yacht club held last Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Fred McCormick, commodore; Fred Walker, vice-commodore; Harold S. Sexton, port captain; Hubert M. Walker, secretary; Oliver B. Racer, measurer; Will McGuire, S. B. Nevies, regatta committee; Walt McDougall, Chick Cooper, Chester Townsend, board of directors. The opening will be held on the 27th and 28th of April. The opening will be held on the evening of the 27th with a jinks and banquet at a local cafe. On the day following the regatta will cruise in squadron, headed by the flagship, the Flyaway.

The Athenian Yacht club fleet is composed of the following yachts: Forty-eight foot schooner Flyaway, flagship; 110 foot schooner Patricia, now bound from Honolulu for San Francisco; fifty-three foot auxiliary schooner Anona; forty-five foot auxiliary ketch boat Anacapa, of San Pedro; forty-foot foot yawl; Acapulco, forty-foot yawl; thirty-three foot yawl; yawl Corair; thirty-six foot yawl Roamer; forty-five foot sloop Hazel S; thirty-three foot sloop Ethel; twenty-nine foot motor boat Surprise; twenty-eight foot motor boat; twenty-six foot motor boat; twenty-three foot motor boat; twenty-two foot motor boat; twenty-one foot motor boat; twenty-foot motor boat; nineteen foot motor boat; eighteen foot motor boat; seventeen foot motor boat; sixteen foot motor boat; fifteen foot motor boat; fourteen foot motor boat; thirteen foot motor boat; twelve foot motor boat; eleven foot motor boat; ten foot motor boat; nine foot motor boat; eight foot motor boat; seven foot motor boat; six foot motor boat; five foot motor boat; four foot motor boat; three foot motor boat; two foot motor boat; one foot motor boat.

VARSITY MEN READY FOR MEET

The track at the University of California upheld their reputation as the champion college team of the State of California by defeating the St. Vincent's at Freeman's Park yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 1. St. Mary's boys outplayed the southern champions at every angle of the game, and could have made the score more lopsided than they did had they wanted to. The Phoenix team outbatted and outfielded the Los Angeles boys at every turn of the rubber. Yesterday's victory stamps the Phoenix team as the best amateur players in the State. The score:

BREEZY CHIT CHAT OF THE GAME

Any time Truck Eagan picks up Big Betsy there is liable to be doings in the yard. Big Betsy is Truck's imported bat. He grabbed this piece of lignum vitae from an undersized Jap in Santa Barbara. It was with Big Betsy that Truck pushed the ball over the right field fence Tuesday afternoon. Billy Reidy posted an ultimatum in Frisco yesterday. He declared that the next time it rained he would parade the media thoroughfares under a $55 moush that Cleveland friends presented him with. The moush has not yet made its debut, but Bill says he will be there with it when the dew begins to fall. The romantic postal cards that Tom Hackett mailed to himself from Santa Barbara are beginning to assemble here. Tiny Tom lifted thirty-three of the souvenirs at Devereaux's yesterday. Silk Derrick's 1937 trowsers omit the Norfolk jacket this season. The trowsers suit is cut full across the chest this season so as to give a full view of that part of the demon umpire's anatomy. The creases in the trowsers of Mr. Derrick both front and rear are visible from any part of the yard. Shinn, who plays third base for the Portland team continues to slap the ball with cue regularity and he got a single yesterday. Lovett turned out a beautiful hand painted single yesterday. Any time a young and aspiring athlete makes a

TURF INTERESTING NOTES ABOUT RACING MATTERS

A good card with the Acushla Handicap as the feature, was the magnet of attraction at Williams Park yesterday, and an immense Wednesday gathering was on hand to witness the result. Long distance performers were given an opportunity to distinguish themselves, as the majority of races were over a mile. Business in the betting market continues to be unusually brisk and thirty-three books drew for positions today. College Widow ran an improved race and coming from the rear in game fashion, overtook the leader in the stretch and won the opening race, going away at the end, Abbey, the favorite, tired when the pinch came and had to be content with the place. Show honors went to Love of Gold, who had a rough journey. The closing race proved only an exercise gallop for True Wing, Ryan's mare assumed the lead at the start and simply made her field dizzy, trying to keep up with her. The Mist ran surprisingly well for the distance and outgamed Phalanx for the place. FLASH—On account of the lateness of the train, Starter Dick Dwyer may not be able to appear at the barrier today. The many friends of bookmaker Joe Harlan will be pained to hear that the winner of the following horses at Denver this summer, Black Prince, Big Ben, Illuminate, Lucky John, Ben Lear, Edward Hale, Safeguard, Valencia, Sam Weather, Hon. Thimble, and others. I handed out four winners yesterday. Nine Spot, my best take-a-chance bet, which was backed from 15 to 1 down to 5 to 1, was just beaten for first honors. Thirty-three bookmakers lined up yesterday for a three day cut-in. Business was more than brisk during the afternoon. Love of Gold ran like a counterfeit yesterday. Turfites "Kid" Weller and "Swede" Sam left for New York last night. Charles Irwin, the Cheyenne horseman, who campaigned the following horses at Denver this summer, Black Prince, Big Ben, Illuminate, Lucky John, Ben Lear, Edward Hale, Safeguard, Valencia, Sam Weather, Hon. Thimble, and others. The racing plant at Butte, Montana, the property of the late Marcellus Daly, was sold recently to a syndicate composed of the following well-known turfites: Harry Stover, Henry Albertson and Hugh Wilson. The price paid was $100,000. Harry Stover will manage the new racing plant. O. P. Romish is now the owner of Kumis. W. A. Dewees arrived from Ascot with Mattie Bumpo, Hatchel and Ballotto. Starter Jake Holtman will dispatch the horses away at the spring meetings of Lexington and Louisville. Ed Kelly presided over the New York club yesterday. Latest report—Charley Van Dusen will ship to Seattle. Reader—Watercure is no relation to Rapid Water.

Brothers. Trainer Dick Ripley, a most competent man, will be in charge of the stable. Stocess, a chestnut gelding by Antee-Claret, the property of Ray Ofert, died yesterday morning of lung fever. Johnny Mullins' Princess Titania ran one of her grand races yesterday. The many bettors of Watercure made a mad rush for a "house" emporium after the race. Trainer "Frisco" Hoag has College Widow in fine fettle. Owner Billy Cahill sent in a large commission on Abbey. President Thomas Williams has arrived in Chicago. The racing plant at Butte, Montana, the property of the late Marcellus Daly, was sold recently to a syndicate composed of the following well-known turfites: Harry Stover, Henry Albertson and Hugh Wilson. NEILL FIGHTS ANOTHER DRAW

SANTA ROSA, April 18.—The fight between Al Neill and Jim Hornbuckle took place here last night and the largest attendance that ever showed at a glove contest was on hand. Both men fought twenty hard and fast rounds and at the end of the contest the referee's decision of a draw was cheered lustily. Gorman did the most leading and offensive work in the early rounds, but Neill came back in hurrah fashion towards the finish. The Santa Rosa club is thinking of rematching the men for another twenty round bout.

BATTERY MEN TO JOIN THE CHAMPS

STOCKTON, April 18.—After considerable parley Pat Donohue and Benny Henderson, the star battery of the Portland team have made up their minds to rejoin their old comrades, and will be seen in blue uniforms this week. Both players are loath to leave the Stockton club, but have been offered such advantageous inducements that they have laid aside their scruples and will be seen in the blue uniforms of Portland the coming week. McClelland, the new Seal, showed plenty of ginger at Los Angeles yesterday.

CENTRAL CLUB TO HOLD SHOW

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The Central club will present the next four round boxing show, six events being carded for Dreamland pavilion Friday night. Quite a number of fighters who have not fought here in a long while will appear in the gloves. George Brown, the middleweight champion of Oakland, who has met and defeated some of the best men in his class, and who holds a draw with Joe Thomas, will clash with Dick Sullivan, the Honolulu champion. Frankie Edwards and Joe Lenhy, the featherweights who gave such a scientific exhibition last month, and Jim Ford and South Side Jack O'Brien, aggressive lightweight, will also meet. Henry Jones, the bantamweight, will make his reappearance against Jimmy Erwin. Joe Carroll, who was champion of the lightweight division for a long time, clashes with the iron man from Ocean View, Jack Rodney. Jimmy Barry and Eddie Foley complete the program.

DANIELS IS TO SWIM CHAMP

NEW YORK, April 18.—C. M. Daniels, champion swimmer of America, and Henry Taylor, the English champion, have agreed to terms for a swimming match. The match is to take place September 10, at Hattersley, where most of the aquatic contests are held in England.

STANFORD EDITOR CLAIMS THAT CO-EDS ARE PRUDES

Also Says Some Attend Varsity to Improve
Chances of Matrimony—Girls Seek Revenge.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 15.—"Are the Stanford co-eds prudes?" Editor Herron of the Sequoia, the literary publication of the students, says they are. "As evidence he points to their boycott of his magazine because of the alleged sugges-tiveness of the poem 'Bathsheba,' a satirical and somewhat vicious attack on the so-called 'Love Letters of Co-eds.'"
"The women of the university have a far too exalted idea of their place at Stanford," says the editor in reply to the criticism of the "co-eds." "They expect to come to a co-educational school, and assume all the privileges and responsibilities of men and be at the same time immune from all censure, no matter what they do or how much they abuse their rights and privileges. Perhaps the real cause of their anger is that the 'Love Letters' conveyed the impression which we believe to be entirely justified, namely,
that the large number of the students who are here come to improve their chances of matrimony."

NO REVENGE.
Utterly futile has been the attempt of the women students to take revenge upon the wicked editor by resolving not to purchase the edition of the Sequoia, which appeared on the campus yesterday. Before noon of the day of the issue six hundred copies had been sold, though only two purchasers were of the feminine sex. The "co-ed" boycott was practically complete, but the sale of the magazine
among the men students had broken all records. It is said that never before have university students shown such interest in an edition of the poetic muse. There is talk of setting the verses to music, and it is predicted that "Bathsheba," set to rag-time, will be the latest hit in New Jersey.
Quite as ubiquitous as Stanford students are "I'm a son of a son of a son of a gambler."

Editor Herron met the attacks of his critics yesterday by a signed article in the student paper which reads as follows:

Relative to the boycott recently inaugurated on the Sequoia by some of the women of the university, I desire to make the following observations:
"First—The poem 'Bathsheba,' which I have referred to as the occasion for the so-called boycott, was condemned by the women before they had read it, and while they were almost ignorant of its tone and contents. It would seem as if any reasonable person that it is unjust to condemn any work before reading it."
"Second—The tone and contents of the poem are not improper. The story told is exactly the biblical narrative of David and Bathsheba. Indeed, the original account was softened in my version of the story. The subject has always been recognized as legitimate for treatment in art and literature.
There are many English courses in the university in which women are required to read plays and poems far more open to objection on moral grounds than 'Bathsheba.'"
"The editor of the Sequoia has a defense rather than an attack upon morality. The crime of David I endeavored to portray in a repulsive rather than an attractive light. Immorality is condemned, not sanctioned."

AN ABSURDITY.
"Lastly—I maintain that the boycott is one of the most absurd instances of ridiculous prudery, fanatical bigotry and dense ignorance that have ever been publicly demonstrated."
"From one of the editorials which appeared in the Sequoia it is evident that Editor Herron anticipated the stratagem that the women of the university would make among the women of the university."

"The editor of the Sequoia has been very bitterly denounced as a man who has no respect for women and whose manner of life is so wicked that he should serve as a standing example of the terrible effects of walking the primrose path to the everlasting bonfire," says the editorial.

"At a recent meeting of Cap and Gown one of the leading members of the organization declared that the cause of the seemingly hopeless degradation of the editor of the Sequoia lay in the fact that he never associated with any women students of the institution. In other words, that he refrained from queening, and was therefore impervious to their softening and refining influences. Thus we have become, in the estimation of the senior student body, a co-educational institution, and they have relegated us to the ranks of the boorish, the dilettante
and the dissolute students whom Dr.
Jordan declared to be the sole opponents of the system."

DEATH RECALLS MURDER TRIAL

John P. Dunning Dies in East—
Was Husband of Candy Poisoner's Victim.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—John P.
Dunning, well-known in newspaper
circles throughout the country, died yesterday in a hospital here of tumor in the brain. He was forty-four years of age.

John P. Dunning was known in San Francisco in connection with the Cordella Botkin murder case. Mrs. Bot-kin was convicted of causing the death of Dunning's wife in New Jersey by means of poisoned candy, which she sent through the mails. Dunning and Mrs. Botkin were very friendly in this city, where Dunning held a position with the Associated Press. Dunning came here from the east to testify against Mrs. Botkin.

In 1889 Dunning was in Apia just after the destructive hurricane and wrote a vivid description of the disaster, which was reprinted all over the world. Dunning also acted as correspondent in the Spanish war and scored several "scoops."

BUILDS STEEL POSTAL CARS

Fire Proof Vehicles Soon to Be Installed by Southern Pacific.

Superintendent of Motive Power H. J.
Smith of the Southern Pacific has had an elaborate postal car built in the Sacramento shops, which is expected to reduce 70 per cent of the danger of the railway mail-car and also add to the safety of the passengers in head-on collisions. The entire framing is so completely bound together that the entire severe shock will tend to buckle the entire framing and make it almost impossible to telescope the cars.

In every detail the car will be fire-proof, and the gas lighting system has been eliminated and electric lights are to be used. The car will be heated by steam furnished by the locomotive and the steam-heating apparatus automatically regulates the temperature of the car. An ordinary stove is heated in one second, however, to be used in case of emergency.

The interior of the car is lined with asbestos on the sides and ends, while the ceiling is steel plate and the floor is of fire-proof concrete. The fixtures are either of iron or brass, the entire wood being the window sashes. The entire outside is made of steel plate.
The flooring is formed of course of corrugated steel, corrugation being laid crosswise in the car and between them a layer of felt is placed. To provide a smooth floor, monolith is used.

This is the first of the elegant new steel postal cars the company will build.

Doctors That Can Cure SICK MEN

517 23rd Street, Near Telegraph Ave., Oakland, Cal.

ARE YOU suffering from early indiscretion, sexual weakness, spermatorrhea, kidney, bladder or prostatic troubles, specific blood diseases (syphilis), stricture, varicocele, gleet, gonorrhea or any other complicated, long standing, deep-seated disease? If so—

ARE YOU aware that nine out of every ten cases treated by old prevailing methods are NOT CURED, BUT BECOME CHRONIC, and the organs remain injured for life?

DO YOU KNOW that the proper treatment of men's diseases requires a greater degree of skill and a much more elaborate equipment than the average physician has at his command.

THEN, in justice to yourself.

WHEN YOU ARE SICK AND REALLY NEED HELP why risk your life and happiness and those who depend upon you with unexperienced Physicians "herb," "Museum," Irregular "Doctors" and "Specialists" whose only evidence of skill is their own words and who offer the "cheap-cure" bait to attract your attention and swindle you out of your health and money and whose only results are unfulfilled promises?

REMEMBER the adage, "YOU CAN'T GET SOMETHING FOR NOTHING."

Begin Right---Consult Us because we are regularly graduated university-trained specialists whose original investigations and long study in the CAUSE AND CURE OF MEN'S SPECIAL DISEASES has caused us to be duly RECOGNIZED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL and SURGICAL AUTHORITIES as

LEADING SPECIALISTS FOR MEN

Here you will find earnest, careful, SKILLFUL, SCIENTIFIC PHYSICIANS who can tell you exactly what is wrong.

Then you will have a chance to observe how an EXPERIENCED SPECIALIST will treat you and how soon you will be restored to health and happiness.

Our treatment is harmless and free from all objectionable drugs. Our latest methods are used, together with those which have been most successful throughout the scientific world. Our cures are permanent, lasting and lifelong.

We do not publish our pictures. WE SELL NO ELECTRIC BELTS or other electric humbugs, but WE DO ASSURE YOU that our standing in the community and profession for our skill, honesty and integrity has never been questioned. BY OUR ACTS WE WISH TO BE JUDGED.

THE THOUSANDS OF COMPLICATED CASES WE HAVE CURED WHERE ALL OTHERS HAVE FAILED ARE OUR BEST REFERENCES.

OUR OFFICES are well appointed and equipped with the most modern appliances and the latest inventions essential for the proper and up-to-date TREATMENT AND CURE of all special diseases of men.

YOU MAY consult us privately in confidence. You will be examined in a thoroughly scientific manner and our diagnosis and advice will be cheerfully given to you ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE. After this, if you desire to be treated and we undertake your case, we positively guarantee to cure you and make you a MAN AMONG MEN—WELL AND STRONG, AS YOU OUGHT TO BE.

Our fees are moderate and within the reach of all.

No matter what your ailments are, call or write to us today, stating your case plainly in your own way, and receive the benefit of a modern, skillful diagnosis and a prompt, radical and permanent cure. All letters truthfully answered in a plain sealed envelope.

OF A

NEW BOWMAN DRUGSTORE

1221-1223 BROADWAY, opposite Ye Liberty Theater

Music by Bangle's Orchestra 2 to 6 -- 8 to 10 P.M.

You are most cordially invited to attend the opening of this—the most beautiful drugstore in the west. It is much larger than our main store at 13th and Broadway. Its unique shape—broad in front and gradually tapering toward the rear, through its entire depth, renders every portion of it visible at once from the front. It will also be most brilliantly lighted by upwards of 300 electric lights. The same policy will prevail that has made the name of "Bowman's" synonymous with quality, absolute reliability, and lowest prices always.

Special Opening Prices at New Store Only

SAILOR ALMOST DROWNS IN BAY

Timely Rescue of Intoxicated Tar by Captain Jennings Near Martinez.

MARTINEZ, April 18.—A sailor attempted to row across the bay in a row boat, to board a schooner last night and fell overboard. He was intoxicated, and was rescued by Captain H. A. Jennings, Jennings is manager of the California Navigation & Improvement company. The fellow had a narrow escape from drowning, and but for the timely help of Captain Jennings, would have been drowned.

MIRRORS WASTE TIME OF WOMEN EMPLOYES

WASHINGTON, April 18.—A strike of the hundreds of women employed in the government printing office may be looked for, owing to the order of Public Printer Phillips directing the removal of all mirrors in the building.
"Too much time is wasted in the women fixing their hair and hats before the looking glasses," explained one of the public printer's assistants.
"We are robbed of our God-given right to take a look and see how our hats are

FACES CHARGE 15 YEARS OLD

Emeryville Restaurant Must Return East to Answer
Bigamy Complaint.

Deputy Sheriff C. C. Curley of Lake Charles, La., has arrived here after Sidney Hall, the alleged bigamist, arrested last week at Emeryville. Hall is the man who, fifteen years ago, it is said, married a woman in Lake Charles, then deserted her, coming to the coast. A year or so ago he is said to have married here, and this brought about his arrest, as he neglected to legally separate himself from his first wife before marrying the second. The officer and his prisoner will leave for the south tomorrow morning.

OAKLANDER IS MADE GOVERNMENT CHEMIST

Exhibition of ORIENTAL RUGS

Thomas H. Kullajian, native of Persia, and well known rug expert, has just returned from his native country, after concluding an arrangement with a big company in Teheran, Persia, bringing with him an elegant collection of Oriental rugs, selected by him with great care, to satisfy the tastes and requirements of the artistic rug buyers of this country. Part of that stock which is already received is going to be sold at auction for the said company at a great sacrifice, to raise the necessary cash to pay duty on the rest of the goods which are still in the Custom House.

Sales will be held daily, at 2.30 P. M. and 7.30 P. M. for a few days only, commencing Tuesday, April 23, 1907.
